

Councils Acclaimed In King, East Gwillimbury And Whitchurch Twps.

Three township councils were acclaimed on Friday in East Gwillimbury, King and Whitchurch. North Gwillimbury and Aurora nominations are this coming Friday.

In East Gwillimbury, Reeve Jack Rye had no opposition but Longford Pegg, who lost to Deputy Reeve Titus Peregrine last year, was nominated again this year and also nominated for council. Walter Rose, also a contender last year, was nominated to council.

Mr. Pegg withdrew his nomination after a speech in which he criticized council for its lack of attention to the roads, and Mr. Rose also withdrew his nomination.

The three councillors are Urville Tait, Walter Rose and J. S. Osborne. The nominations were held in the township hall at Sharon with Clerk John Smith as returning officer and chairman. There was a good turn-out of voters.

Biggest issue was raised by Mr. Pegg who was critical of the use of township men to work on the new township building. He felt they should have been used on road work. Members of council replied that more gravel had been laid than in previous years and that the township had saved considerable money by using township employees.

At King township meeting, there was no opposition to Reeve Elton Armstrong and Deputy T. A. McCutcheon. William Keyhoe and Stanley Kuniski were nominated as councillors but did not stand. Councillors acclaimed were Wm. Hodgson, Russell, Snider and Ray Jennings.

As in East Gwillimbury, the issue was roads with Messrs. Keyhoe and Kuniski critical of the upkeep of roads in their respective home districts.

A full report of the King meeting is on page 16.

All members of the Whitchurch township 1951 council were acclaimed at nomination meeting held at Vandorf on Friday, Nov. 23. The Reeve is Ivan McLaughlin, R. R. 2 Stouffville, Deputy Reeve Fred Timbers, R. R. 2 Stouffville, R. C. Baycroft, R. R. 1 Aurora, P. S. Legge, Newmarket and E. L. McCarron, R. R. 2 Aurora.

The only other candidate nominated was Delos Graham, R. R. 2, Stouffville, who did not qualify.

He said that if there had been other candidates, he would have been in the election but since he was the only extra nomination, he would not qualify as a candidate.

Mr. Ghent has been with the Co-Op for five years. A veteran, he has been active in Co-Op affairs and for two years was president of the Co-Op Union of Ontario. He is now a member of the executive. He is married and has four children. He owns a farm at Pine Orchard.

Mr. McClymont was raised in Newmarket and joined the Co-Op a year ago last October. He is married with two children.

BUSINESSMEN MEET

The Newmarket Businessmen's Association will hold its luncheon meeting at the King George hotel at 1 p.m. on Monday, Dec. 3. The subject to be discussed is store closing hours. All Newmarket businessmen are invited.

400 Revision Appeals In North Gwillimbury

Nearly 400 assessment appeals have been filed by North Gwillimbury ratepayers for the court of revision hearings to be held at Belhaven on December 3, 4 and 5. The hearings start on each of these days at 1 p.m.

Most of the appeals are being made by cottage owners and owners of land which have been surveyed for future subdivision development. There are about 25 appeals by ratepayers on Skane Island.

Last year a mass appeal by 70 Skane Island ratepayers was filed on the grounds that their property was on Crown land but the appeal was thrown out. The appeals on the 1952 township assessment are believed to be put forth for the same reasons as last year.

Find By-laws To Conflict With Old Road Law

Latest word on the North Gwillimbury road closing issue is that by-laws authorizing the closing of the roads have been found but that the original law, prohibiting the closing of roads ending on navigable waters still stands.

The issue was raised when, during re-assessment, it was found that seven roads on the old Keswick town plan at Roche's Point had been closed. It is against the law, so it was said, to close roads ending upon navigable waters, and Mrs. Arlene Link went to council to ask that the roads be opened to give access to areas back from the water in this crowded resort.

The issue has since remained unsolved while old records have been searched in an effort to settle whether or not the roads were closed illegally.

Mrs. Link, a real estate agent at Island Grove, was candidate for deputy-reeve in North Gwillimbury last year. Despite reports to the contrary, Mrs. Link has stated definitely she is not entering the council race this year.

BUCKET BRIGADE SAVES BURNING RIDGES RESTAURANT

The Wheehouse restaurant at Oak Ridge was saved from complete destruction by fire last Thursday by three brothers who formed a bucket brigade.

The three Rutledge brothers, Marsh, 69, Charles, 72 and Watson, 75, carried water from a well and prevented the fire, which started in the restaurant's kitchen, from spreading to the service station. The Rutledges live next door to the Wheehouse.

Owner of the restaurant, Donald White, said he started the space heater in the kitchen and went outside to feed his horses. On his return, flames were climbing up the kitchen walls.

Mr. White's mother was asleep in her bedroom and was aroused by the smell of smoke. Aurora firemen estimated damage at $1,000.

CHRISTMAS MAIL DEADLINES START BEFORE DECEMBER 8

Canada Post Office sends out its usual plea this year to mail early. There will be no mail delivery on Christmas day, the Post Office announces.

Deadline dates suggested by the postal authorities are as early as December 8 if pre-Christmas delivery is to be assured.

Some of the deadline dates are as follows: United States (especially parcels) to allow for Customs examination) before Dec. 8; British Columbia before Dec. 12; Alberta and Saskatchewan before Dec. 13; Newfoundland (for remote points consult post office) Dec. 13; Manitoba and Maritime provinces before Dec. 14 and Ontario and Quebec before Dec. 15.

All mail to be delivered locally should be posted before Dec. 17, otherwise delivery before Christmas is doubtful.

WESTERN ROUNDUP FAILS TO RETURN WANDERING CATTLE

A wild western-style roundup near Aurora recently failed to return 10 head of cattle which have had the wanderlust for a month and a half. Lawrence J. McGuinness has been trying for six weeks to capture his cattle which wandered away from his farm and into the bush two miles west of Aurora.

Mr. McGuinness staged a roundup with friends and neighbors, including a champion of the 1912 Calgary Stampede, A. D. Keene. After several hours of horseback riding, the posse, including Donald McLellan and Roy Bell, brought only a calf back to the farm.

The roundup has been given up and it has been decided to let the cattle find their own way home. It is hoped that they will return in search of better food. There were eight cows and two bulls in the herd.

NEWMARKET CONCERT SERIES CAMPAIGN NEARS CLOSE

Executive members of the Newmarket Canadian Concert Association are seen with Margeurite Gignac, Canadian soprano heard frequently on the C.B.C., who sang at a banquet held at the King George hotel last Friday night to open Newmarket's Canadian Concert Series campaign. Forty persons who have been working on the association membership drive this week were at the banquet. Left to right are T. Gillespie, treasurer, Mrs. C. R. Blackstock, secretary, Miss Gignac, Mrs. Robert Rourke, president and Alex Eves, vice president. President of the association, Mrs. Rourke, said yesterday that the campaign has already had "wonderful results". Membership drive Canadian artists will be held in the first part of the new year.

Santa Claus is coming to town on Saturday, Dec. 8, at 1 p.m. He'll be the guest of the businessmen of Newmarket, and will parade with floats down Main St. and around to the town hall square where he'll greet his little friends.

The parade this year will be larger than ever before. The businessmen have gone to considerable trouble and expense to bring to town several feature attractions for the parade. Additionally, it is expected that a number of Newmarket floats will be entered, making the largest parade yet.

Mr. Crocker stressed of foremost importance the need for complete community support of such a project. The Milverton pool took three years to build but the time could have been greatly reduced had here been full support of the project when first undertaken.

1951 Councillors And Four Others In Election Race

Ten candidates are seeking the six council seats and four are seeking the three school board seats in Newmarket following the nomination meeting on Friday night. Election day is Monday, Dec. 3.

Mayor Joseph Vale, Reeve Arthur D. Evans and Deputy Reeve J. L. Spillette were acclaimed.

Bill Young was acclaimed as hydro commissioner.

Seeking re-election are the six councillors of last year, Frank Bowser, Tom Birrell, Rudy Renzlius, Jos. Dales, Charles VanZant and Lorne Paynter. The four new candidates are Aubrey Scythes, who sat in council one year a few years ago, Edward Wrightman, Charles Boyd and Mrs. Violet Robinson MacNaughton.

A. G. Mickey Smith was also nominated as councillor but failed to qualify.

Mrs. MacNaughton ran for council last year and lost out by only a few votes. She asked a recount in which her vote was recounted with the vote of Frank Bowser. Both received a better showing as a result of the recount, but Mr. Bowser's lead was upheld and even though Mrs. MacNaughton's recounted total was better than the lowest successful council candidate's, she was unable to take her seat because of a quirk in the law.

Last year's election was also memorable in that it resulted in the closest vote in Newmarket's history, with five candidates closely bunched.

Seeking the three school board seats are Mrs. Stella Curtis, who was a member last year, and three newcomers, Mrs. Mina Best, Mrs. Caroline Ion and George Philmire.

The two other retiring members of the school board, Mrs. Val Seldon and Mrs. Madeline Mathews, were nominated but both had earlier stated they would not stand for re-election.

Both have had extensive terms on the school board and both have been chairman. Both served as chairman of every committee on the board and Mrs. Mathews continues as a member of the executive of the Ontario School Trustees and Ratepayers' Association and as a member of the Ontario Trustees Council.

There was a good attendance at the meeting, Clerk Wesley Brooks counting 170 at nine p.m. Following the closing of nominations, Fred A. Lundy, former reeve of Newmarket and one-time warden of York County, took the chair.

It was a quiet meeting with all the candidates receiving a good hearing. There were brief interruptions during the retiring address of Mrs. Mathews but no other comment from the floor.

See page 13 for condensed addresses of the candidates.

PERFUMES PRIZES

The Newmarket fire department held its dance, euchre and draw in the town hall Friday, November 16. Several persons won turkeys and chickens. Jim Cullen won first prize, a turkey, and William Brown, second, also a turkey. Other winners who took home chickens were Art Scott, Bob McCabe, Betty Glenn, Dewy Kuhn, Mrs. Ethel Luke, Toronto, and Lewis Jay.

The firemen have expressed their appreciation to the citizens of Newmarket for the co-operation shown toward the fire department.

Lions Club Makes Appeal For Annual Christmas Basket Fund

The Newmarket Lions club has begun its annual campaign for contributions to its Christmas Basket Fund. The club raises close to $1,000 each year for the baskets which are filled with gifts of food, clothing, toys and food for families in less fortunate circumstances.

The scope of the Lions basket campaign is in line with the Lions service work which during the year has included the raising of $600 for crippled children, $146 spent on boys and girls work, $54 on hospitalization, $45 on dental work, $60 on eyeglasses and $68 in donations.

York County Juniors Score High At Fair

One championship, one reserve and seven animals in the first prize group was the record of the York County Baby Beef Club in the sensational King's Guineas class at the Royal Winter Fair. The Guineas Class began by means of a fund established by the late King Edward 7th and is open to calf club members only. Annually it brings out a very large entry of the finest beef calves in the province. An audience of several thousand enthusiastic supporters filled the stands around the large ring of the Coliseum while the judging was in progress.

Bill Arkinstall of R. R. 2, Newmarket, had the champion steer in the Aberdeen Angus class. Margaret Arkinstall, Newmarket, Jean Brumwell, Gormley, and David Evershed of Aurora also showed Angus calves and all placed in the first prize group.

In the Shorthorn class, judge Chas. Yule of Calgary, Alta., finally placed the roan Shorthorn steer owned by Aileen Easton in the Reserve Championship spot. Other exhibitors of Shorthorns were Jocelyn Easton, Sylvia Easton and Isobel Hood of Gormley. The Grand Champion over all breeds this year went to a Hereford steer exhibited by Richard Hurd of Granton.

On the day following the show the calves are auctioned off to the highest bidder. The champion Angus steer owned by Bill Arkinstall brought 46¢ per pound while Aileen Easton's Reserve champion sold at 40¢ a pound.

The Guineas Class completes a very successful year for the York County Baby Beef Club. Earlier in the year Sylvia Easton of Gormley and Brownie Weir of Milliken were Provincial Champion beef judges and then during the first week of the Royal they took part in the National Club Contests.

In the national contests, Sylvia and Brownie were two of 118 contestants coming from all provinces except Newfoundland. Each of the contestants had to be a champion judge in his own province before being allowed to enter the Dominion competition.

During the week, the group had headquarters at the Royal York Hotel in Toronto. Following the competition on Monday they travelled to many points of interest including a visit to the International Harvester plant at Hamilton, Brock's Monument at Queenston and Niagara Falls.

They were also guests in Toronto at the Ice Capades and the Royal Winter Fair Horse Show.

On Thursday the group entered for Ottawa where they were received by the Governor General and Lady Alexander at Rideau Hall. Also at Ottawa they were enabled to tour the Parliament Buildings and to see Parliament in session. During the tour many strong inter-provincial friendships were established and final farewells resulted in many sad faces. Congratulations on a job well done, Sylvia and Brownie.

The National Club Contests are under the supervision of the Canadian Council on Boys' and Girls' Club Work which celebrated its 21st birthday this year.

The general secretary of the Council is Mr. A. E. MacLaurin of Ottawa while the public relations officer is James Moore, formerly with the Ontario department of agriculture in Newmarket.

ASK DONATIONS FOR ONTARIO HOSPITAL

A special Christmas program has been arranged for the next meeting of the Women's association, Trinity United church, Newmarket. The meeting will be in the school room on Thursday, Dec. 6, at 2:45 p.m. Donations of candy or the money to purchase same for the patients at the Ontario Hospital, Aurora, will be appreciated. Members are reminded to bring their mite boxes to this meeting. A cordial invitation is extended to all ladies of the congregation to attend.

MOTHERS INVITED TO YULE PARTY

All mothers of Guelph, Brantford, Scouts, Rover and Cubs in Newmarket are invited to attend a Christmas party in the Scout hall on Monday, Dec. 3, at 8 p.m. Held by the Scout-Guide Mothers' auxiliary, the social evening will feature Christmas games and carol singing. Light refreshments will be served.

Mothers attending the party are asked to bring a wrapped gift of not more than 25 cents in value. Installation of officers will be conducted by Rev. J. T. Rhodes.

In one recent month Canadians cashed more cheques than ever before. They were worth $9,031,966,000.

Oak Ridges News

MRS. LAURA ROLLING, CORRESPONDENT, PHONE KING 8

A recent event of interest was the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. William Sheehan, who have been residents of Oak Ridges for six years.

Twenty-five years ago, the happy couple were married in St. Mary's Roman Catholic church at Achill, near Athlone. After a year in Essex county, they returned to their home to farm for 18 years. Three children were born of their union, John, Edward and a daughter, Angela, who is a nurse-in-training at St. Michael's hospital, Toronto.

The anniversary mass was said on Thursday, Nov. 15, at Richmond Hill by Father McGuire. On the following Saturday, Nov. 17, their children honored them with an evening party when 30 guests from Toronto, Gormley, St. Catharines, Niagara Falls, Eond Lake and Elgin Mills joined to wish Mr. and Mrs. Sheehan many years of life together. Among the guests was Mrs. Spence, the bride's mother.

On the following day, Sunday, Nov. 18, Mr. and Mrs. Sheehan were tendered a family dinner at the home of the groom's brother, Mr. Jerry Sheehan of Gormley, who was his brother's groomsman. Mrs. Sehl of St. Catharines, the bride's twin sister, was her bridesmaid, and the dinner was sponsored by the attendants of the bride and groom. The occasion was very festive, featuring a bride's cake and its complements. Many lovely gifts were received. Neighbors and friends join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Sheehan and family many happy years in their midst. Transfers to Toronto Bank

Mr. Gerald Stephenson, who has been with the Bank of Montreal at Newmarket for over two years, has transferred to the and Broadview branch, Toronto. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Stephenson, Lake Wilcox.

Youngest at Royal Fair

Anne Rowe, 7, of Oak Ridges, apparently was the darling of the Royal Winter Fair, as the youngest competitor of the show. She sat with Garry Campbell, 13, of Port Colborne, in the governess cart when he drove Anne's pony, "Cream Puff," which placed 7th in the children's turnout, under 12.2.

"Cream Puff," ridden by Johnny Woolley, 9, of Oak Ridges, placed 5th in the saddle pony class, under 12.2 hands. It was the first show in which the 5-year-old "Cream Puff" had been entered in the saddle pony class, and Johnny did a good job. Anne was a bit too young to try out in a new experience.

The Oak Ridges Junior Riders are preparing for the Christmas show, to enter two horses not shown before, Miss Marilyn Hawman, trainer, states.

Soldier Welcomed Home

When Pte. C. T. Maguire (Bud) arrived at the Toronto Union Station, he was given a royal welcome by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Maguire, his three brothers and three sisters, and special friends. When he arrived at his Lake Wilcox home later in the day, a welcome home party awaited him, as friends

IN MEMORIAM

Bond—At Toronto, Thursday, Nov. 22, 1951, at her home 47 Keele St., Robina Neum, wife of the late (Teen) Cyrenus Arnold Bond, mother of John R. and Ernest G. Bond, and sister of Mrs. Fred Boynton (Minnie) of Aurora, Alfred Neum of Toronto and E. C. Neum of Detroit, Mich., grandmother of John E. and Joan M. Bond. Service was held in Toronto, Nov. 24. Interment Mount Pleasant cemetery.

Edwards—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Arthur Edwards, who passed away Dec. 1, 1949. Just a thought of sweet remembrance,

Just a memory sad and true; Just a love and sweet devotion, From the ones who think of you.

Ever remembered by his wife Lulu, and sons Howard and Ivan.

Menar—In loving memory of a dear husband William Menar, who passed away Dec. 1, 1942. You are not forgotten, Nor ever will you be; As long as life and memory lasts, I will remember you.

Ever remembered by wife Mary.

Mitchell—In loving memory of a dear mother Amella Ann, wife of the late Sylvanus Mitchell, who passed away Nov. 28, 1944.

While you dear mother rest and sleep,

Though on earth you are no more,

Still in memory you are with us, As you always were before.

While you are softly sleeping,

And the flowers gently wave,

What I would give to clasp your hand,

The one we could not save.

Ever remembered by daughter Amella and Russel.

Pegg—In loving memory of our dear nephew, Johnny Pegg, aged 2, who passed away Dec. 2, 1919. The memory of his dear wee ways,

Will linger with us all our days, Sweetest flower, too sweet to stay,

God took him to show us the way,

Sadly missed by uncle Clarence, niece Della and Jack Crittenden.

Pegg—In loving memory of our dear son Johnny Pegg, who passed away Dec. 2, 1949.

Fondly loved and deeply mourned,

Heart of my heart I miss you so;

Often, my darling, my tears will flow,

Dimming your picture before my eyes,

But never the one in my heart that lies.

The stars seem dim as I whisper low,

"My own darling boy, I miss you so".

Lovingly remembered by Daddy,

Mommy, Bobby, David and Jimmie.

Turrell—In loving memory of a dear mother, Isabel Turrell, who passed away Nov. 30, 1949.

Last year Canadians paid $1,

$25,000,000 by direct taxes and

$36,100,000 in indirect imposts.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

Last Sunday was what is called "Stir up Sunday" from the two opening words from the Collect for the day — and so next Sunday will be Advent Sunday, the first Sunday in the church's year, the season for the preparation for the Festival of the Nativity.

Last Tuesday evening the Afternoon Branch of the W.A. were sponsors to a nylon demonstration in the Parish Hall, which turned into a social evening afterwards, and was much enjoyed.

Then on Thursday afternoon, the same organization had a used clothing and white elephant sale, and those in charge were afterwards treated to a surprise Christmas supper prepared and served piping hot by the Evening Branch.

It was a complete surprise to the tired members of the Senior Branch and it was enjoyed to the full.

The Junior Auxiliary will meet tomorrow at the Rectory at 4:30 p.m. All girls between the ages of nine and 12 are welcome.

Today the Afternoon Branch are packing their annual bale of good used warm clothing, and the box of Christmas gifts for the needy white settlers of our Canadian north west.

There was Corporate Communion in the church this morning for all members of the Women's Auxiliary, it being St. Andrew's Day, the patron saint of missionaries.

The flowers in church last Sunday on the Holy Table were in loving memory of Mrs. Charles Hayes from her husband, and on the memorial tablet from the Evening Branch.

It was a complete surprise to

HELP YOURSELF - AND HELP SOMEONE ELSE

That's right, ladies. We will pay two dollars on each old dress traded in on a new dress from our stock — Any dress in the store — you take your choice. Naturally, we can only allow one "trade-in" on each purchase.

You'll want to know what happens to your old dress. We have arranged for the SALVATION ARMY to take them.

So here's your chance to do a good turn — for yourself — and for someone else. Sale ends on Dec. 1.

HANDICRAFT GROUP
PLANS FOR '52

Mrs. A. I. Maughan, Aurora, was hostess to the Newmarket Handicraft group on Tuesday, Nov. 20, when the ladies met to discuss the recent Community Bazaar. Mrs. E. A. Mitchell presided.

The group felt that it was the most successful bazaar held to date. Mrs. George McNelly convened the affair. She reported that all the many organizations and individuals who participated in it were very co-operative. They were pleased to have had the opportunity to present their crafts and bazaar items to such a large purchasing public.

The Handicraft group wished to thank the participants and the patrons of the bazaar for contributing to its success. Plans are being formed for next season's fourth annual Community Bazaar.

Diggers And Aces Tie

Ditch Diggers and Case's Aces (Merchants) engaged in a rough-tumble 7-all tie, in the Aurora town loop Tuesday. In the nightcap, Victory Flyers racked up their third straight—they top the league—with a 7-6 win over Jimmy Murray's Hotelmen.

It was case of on again, gone again, in the early game. Ditch Diggers had it neatly parcelled. They led 4-2 at the end of one, 5-4 at the end of two. It was then the Cliff Chapman Casemen came to life—ran in three quickies, in early third and the shovel toters had to catch fire in closing five minutes to gain a split.

Frank Young and Don Watson provided the Diggers spark. They punched home two goals apiece. Young's second marker gave the Shovelmen the tie. Gold-dust twins, Harold Stephenson and Tracy Barrager, gift-wrapped a goal each. Coach Mickey Sutton kept in the swing with a singleton. Ted Cameron flicked the red light twice, Eugene Rose, Don Holman, Ron "Chubb" Simmons, Stew Patrick and ball of fire Tom Brodie connected for one each for Chapman's ice platoon.

One brief flare up but it jammed the cooler. "Shorty" Sutton got five for one, that's five minutes for a punch. While he was, Caseman high geared scoring came alive in the early third period to count, three. Victory Flyers flew for four goals in a second period drive. It was their main cog in sneaking off to the third 7-6 win over Murray's Hotelmen. That middle frame proved Hotelmen's downfall as they outscored the better conditioned Flyers in the other rounds. Clem Elias and Dave Richardson popped away at a two-goal clip to pace the Flyers. Dave Dinner, Eddie Richardson and Andy Lloyd cracked in one each. Artie White and Bill Kirbyson had their hockey shooting irons on target, counting two each. Chuck Southwood and Normie "Hat" Egan drilled home one apiece for the Hotelmen. Only three penalties in nity struggle.

5-5 Tie

In a pre-season curtain raiser to the main junior hockey event this week, Aurora "Cubs" battled Sutton "Greenshirts" to a 5-all draw in the Aurora arena Friday. Sutton boasted an attack threesome, Skip Taylor, John Leary, Geo. Holborn, who could do business with an intermediate crew, and are destined for O.R.H.A. senior action under the guidance of Ellis Pringle.

Fans, the biggest turn-out of the season at Aurora arena, saw a good game, and a draw just about left matters where they should be. Sutton broke in front 2-1 on Skip and Fred Taylor's tallies—Elmo Phillips, ex-Bear hand, got the one back for the Cubs.

Sutton increased their margin to 3-1 on Keith Dunn's blazing shot that whipped by Joe Burke in the Cubs' cage. It was tied before the period wound up as Bob Hanna whipped home a drive after Bob Forhan laid it out to him and Pepper Martin scooted the length of the ice on a break-away. Aurora were a man short at the time as Elmo Phillips sat out a high-sticking sentence.

The third opened with Keith Dunn catching a corner with a whistler—his second such effort. Pepper Martin stroked in a three-way passer that took in Donnie Munshaw and Andy Closs Jr. and Joe Gasko tucked away a pass from Murray Edwards. That gave Aurora a 5-4 lead at 16:13. Geo. Lamont, who chases speeders for a pastime on the city streets, got his Sutton mates out of hockey with a dipsy doodle effort—after John Leary set him on a clear heat at 18:02. That's how it ended—5 all.

Anybody Interested?

The Era and Express sports department has been flooded lately with requests for the formation of a basketball loop. One persistent scramble-ball man asks why not a basketball loop of Aurora High seniors, Aurora High Grads, St. Andrew's, Pickering College seniors, Newmarket High seniors and Newmarket High grads.

And why not? Wouldn't require too much organization, reports this one gentleman, and could provide some fine winter evening's fun for us long fellows who have to look down on six foot. We'll pass the idea along to Fred Speer, C. R. Blackstock and Frank Gregoire. No charge.

Floodlight Boost

The floodlight thermometer received another lift this week. Fred Speer, head-man of football at the N.H.S., advises ticket sale for the N.H.S.-Pickering College gridiron battle that was winter-killed revitalized $52.50, and the ticket purchasers are allowing their purchase price to stand as a donation to the floodlight fund.

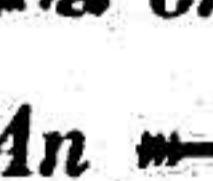

Thank you, Mr. Speer, C. R. Blackstock, Lou Lanier and Ward Cornell for the assistance. Chairman Charlie VanZant recently received a donation from Susan Peters $2.50, Robert Peters Jr. $2.50, to aid the fund. Fund now has reached the $2,200.03 mark.

Awake, awake, Aurora and Newmarket hockey fans. There's hockey openers to attend tonight and tomorrow p.m.

Spits arrive at the counting working on a scheme to provide a bus load of supporters for all away games. They've landed 10 customers to date. Anymore? Contact above gents for details.

Pleased to report arena manager Stan Smith, forced to take a short lease at the York County hospital, is on the mend. He returned home Tuesday. Chin up sir, chin up.

"Pep" Perrymont, Aurora recreation director, will miss opening junior bout Friday. Everything arranged for a big event though. Pep heads for the Lakehead Friday to bring his family to Aurora.

Count is eight—eight goalies injured this winter to date. Tod Mosier lost four teeth in Office Specialty scrapping last week.

Loring "Chadwick" Doolittle is referee-in-chief for both Newmarket and Aurora Town League. Players, coaches and fans all agree "Silent" is doing a splendid job. "Grossly exaggerated", reports Doode of his part and that of the teams in the King-Kettleby flare-up last week. The game had to be abandoned after five minutes of second period. Just shows to go you what healthy chappies will do for some fun.

A hearty round of applause for Jim Murray who doubles in Office as Hotelmen net-minder and Aurora Town League proxy. Jim, speaking in his capacity as league president before the teams opened last week's fray, they played it rough and nasty in the openers, warned them to "cut out the rough stuff—remember we've all got to go to work next day. Don't let the other chap know he's a better player than you by fouling him after he gets around you."

Very good points for the town loungers to tuck in their bonnets for future reference.

Can anybody beat this? The Rose brothers, Ralph, Eugene and Bruce, form a complete attacking unit for Case's Aces, in Aurora Town League. Four Sutton brothers display their wares in the Aurora blood and thunder Mickey, "Shorty" and Charlie with the Diggers, and Harry with the Hotelmen.

Results now? No response to our plea for a sponsor for bantam all-stars. Come on Santa, what about you?

On the alleys

Par took a licking from the lead, Geo. Phimister was a close second with 654 (286-184-184).

HASHMAN AWARD

To Cliff Gunn

As the early season scoring statistics start to roll in from the Town leagues and the country divisions, etc., we ran across a note that indicates Cliff Gunn was on target last week in the Newmarket and District actions. Cliff came up with a five-goal scoring spree.

His efforts in the main were responsible for meeting out an 11-1 shellacking to Harry Lavender's Vandorfers as the Town Regents recorded the one and only top heavy score in the town circuit to date. For this effort, five goals in one game and that's travelling and shooting at a record clip - we're naming Cliff Gunn for the Hashman award this week and the Roxy Theatre pass.

Wind Up Season

Presentations ended with turkey for top billing November 23 in the Mount Albert Community Hall. It was honor night for Mount Albert Junior Ladies Softball team, who brought home the Taylor Beal Trophy, emblematic of Lake Simcoe Ladies League supremacy, and also the Sutton Legion Trophy, which was won by Mount Albert at the Sutton Horse Show.

The banquet opened with the singing of grace followed by a delicious turkey supper supplied by the Mount Albert Women's Institute. Master of Ceremonies Roy Stewart took over to introduce the members of the winning team. This was followed by a reading by Gladys Rolling, "Ida at the Bat". The toast to the team was proposed by Geo. Green Sr. and was responded to by Ida Bertolin.

Each player was then called forward to receive a windbreaker suitably adorned with a crest to mark the second straight Lake Simcoe Junior Ladies championship.

A toast to the community was proposed by Mrs. Gladys Rolling, coach and manager of the team, in which she thanked one and all for the support given the team. Taylor Beal responded.

Members of the team didn't forget their coach, presenting Gladys Rolling with very fine gift. Presentation was made by Ida Bertolin. The Morrison brothers, Russell and Robert of Zephyr, and Harvey Evans, elocutionist from Sharon, entertained the guests with various numbers. The successful social evening concluded with a pair of films, "Trooping of the Colors" and "Toronto - Boom Town" shown by Mr. De Witt of the National Film Board.

It was the Hastings-Breedon's clan's first chance to celebrate and dropped the winless Bolton Wanderers into the league cellar. Trevor Graham whacked home a first period nifty goal to start Schomberg away - Bill Winters duplicated in the second. Bob Wallace finally stroked the biscuit behind Bob Kearns to crack his iron curtain and the teams fenced through a stirring show to complete a dandy game.

Scoring at a goal a period clip in both the second and third, Vandorf "Flyers" counted their first win, putting to sleep Murray Edgar's Mounties 4-3 in a give and take tussle. The teams traded a quartet of goals in the second. Harry Lavender's Vandorfers out-scored Mount by a 2-1 edge in the third to claim their win.

Dave Couch paced the Mount attack with two, Bennett Gross racked up the third. Doug Ross, Elmira Juniors will clash with Aurora in the pre-game of the junior "D" loop, and little is known of the ability of the visitors except that they come from a vicinity that produces good hockey players. The home club, known as the "Cubs" last season, will likely be called the "Bears" this winter. The officers of the club are negotiating a deal with Jim Wall, maestro of the '51 Bears, for purchase of his equipment which includes the maroon and white sweaters.

Exhibition games have been seen Aurora score wins over Nobleton and Newtonbrook, tie Ellis Pringle's Sutton Intermediates 5-5, and drop a 9-3 verdict to Collingwood. The loss to Collingwood saw the teams tied at the end of the first period, 3-3, the northerners forged to a 4-3 lead in the second, and as the Aurora condition faded, the absence of Keith Collings and Pepper Martin finally told. Against the bigger Sutton club the kids looked mighty good and Rountree is convinced that he was a potential winner.

Rumor has it that Paul Maguire, the stylish, experienced net-minder, has parted ways with the club. Maguire, it is said, didn't make the trip to Collingwood and as a result Rountree started Bad News Burke in the nets against Sutton. Burke more than filled the bill in both games, and Rountree has made his choice. Charlie takes no fooling from the players, which explains the success he has invariably had from his teen-age clubs. It's to be hoped, however, that Maguire is not lost to the team for the season as over the long grind, two goalies are a great insurance.

Turk Broda and Tim Daley, who need no introduction to the fans, will be on hand for the opening ceremonies as ambassadors of good-will from the Toronto Leafs. Figure-skating will be included on the program and free hot dogs will go to the children accompanied at the gate by adults.

The line-up for Aurora as announced will be: goal, Burke; defense, Phillips, Fines, Winter, Schomberg wins first game; Nobleton takes over first place; King-Kettleby hijinks to finish in the board room.

That briefly sums up last week's King-Vaughan hockey league action. Bob Kearns, outstanding in goal, newcomers Bob Cheseeman and Trevor Graham, and the Marchant brothers, Doug and Don, welcomed back, Schomberg collected a 2-1 win over Bolton.

The two teams opened their scramble-ball campaigns with an exhibition game Monday. Pickering assumed charge from the start, built a half-time edge 35-23, and went on to carve out a 55-53 win over the Purple and Gold.

Pickering's big scorer was John Cameron with 26 points. John Allen got untracked for 16 and Pete Harvey hooped 14 points.

Jerry Hugo and Bob Saunders staked claims for the bulk of N.H.S. scoring. Hugo rattled in 12 and Saunders 19 points.

King Hockey Opens Court Tonight

King hockey officially comes to town, at Newmarket tonight at Aurora on Friday night. The Spittires meet Collingwood in the opening game of the group at 8:30 with an official opening including all the local dignitaries set for Stan. Smith's ice palace. Coach Jack Shewchuk has his team all ready to go, with Jack Andrews, the husky defenceman from Aurora likely to sit this one out. Eddie Bush presents an even stronger team than last year, at least so far as depth is concerned, and this game warrants a capacity house.

Spits Split Minden

Spits Open Tonight

All alleys, byways and highways lead to the Newmarket arena roof collapsed, had the roof fall in on them again here last Wednesday as our Spits went up on the 1951-52 intermediate - Senior B hockey campaign. The first night attraction is designed to send the fans into a frenzy. Eddie Bush brings in his Collingwood "Shipbuilders" as the start-off opposition. Need we say more.

The teams are likely to start in where they left off last spring. Collingwood are defending intermediate O.H.A. champs and are reported to have a stronger side than last year. Spits have added several newcomers and tonight's test will enable the fans to ascertain if our Spits are to go rolling down the O.H.A. hockey highway. Game time is 8:30 p.m. Spits have a return date in Collingwood Saturday and make their second road appearance next Tuesday in the lair of the Stouffville "Clippers".

The Spits outscored and outshot the invaders - who came here with an intermediate B rating - in every period. Bill Johnston spark-plugged the Spits with three goals. Don Gibson and Normie Legge racked up two each. Grant Firth, Myles McInnis, Bill McGhee and Laurie Thoms counted a goal apiece.

Cec. Olmstead, Herb, Baker and Bud Kernaghan were the Minden goal-getters. Spits jumped away to a two-goal first period lead. The invaders, after their first period rest, appeared to take on new skating legs. They walked right through the Newmarket rearguard to dump the puck behind Joe Tunney twice. The effort of tying it proved too much for the visitors. The Spits came on and took charge with five goals before round two was history and made a rout of it with a four-goal fling in the finale.

Eddie Bush brings his Collingwood Shipbuilders to Newmarket tonight for the opening game of the schedule against Spits.

Dr. Rose Mayoral Candidate Case Of Commr. G. Baldwin New Candidates For Council

There have been rumors floating around for a week or two that Dr. Crawford Rose might seek a return to the mayoral chair, which he held for two years, after being a member of council for four years and heading the polls for the last two of them. Today, Monday, November 26, it must already be widely known in town that his candidature is confirmed, and for additional information we refer our readers to Dr. Rose's personal proclamation in our advertising columns.

There are now two hats in the mayoral arena and the fight is on. There may be other hats thrown in to add to the tempo of the conflict. None can say for sure until nominations close. We do know for a certainty that Mayor Bell would not have gotten away with an acclamation this year. Failing other nominations there was a candidate to carry the flag of protest. That is all we need say at the moment on that.

We do not doubt that Dr. Rose will present a definite program to the electors on nomination night. It is correct, therefore, that we reserve comment until we learn what it is. Dr. Crawford Rose is a likeable and popular personality, gifted with an immense fund of energy and determination, all of which is calculated to make him a hefty foe of all and sundry aspiring to the office of mayor of Aurora for 1952.

Case of Mr. Baldwin
As far as we know there will be two offices to fill on the hydro commission, one consequent on the resignation of chairman, Mr. George Baldwin, and the other arising from Dr. Rose's retirement to seek the office of mayor.

It was at a council meeting on September 17 when Mayor Bell stated that Mr. Baldwin had tendered his resignation and that it had been accepted, but that the retiring commissioner had agreed to stay on until the end of the year providing the hydro building's wall and canopy were left where they were.

It has been suggested from two or three quarters that Mr. Baldwin might withdraw his resignation, to continue as chairman of the hydro commission, now that

THURSDAY, THE TWENTY-NINTH DAY OF NOVEMBER, NINETEEN HUNDRED AND FIFTY-ONE

EDITORIALS

NOMINATIONS, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 30

Tomorrow night, Friday, November 30, nominations will be made in the Mechanics' hall for council, the hydro and the public school. It is important that the voters should attend in the largest possible numbers, and by their presence show how pronounced is the interest that is now being taken in local municipal matters.

The recent by-law introduced by Councillor Davies, and passed by council, limits the time between nominations and elections to 10 days only. The elections will take place on Monday, December 10. Thus very little time is allowed the electors to learn anything about new candidates offering their services to the municipality.

The electors will, however, have opportunities of asking candidates questions on nomination night, and it is hoped that such opportunities will not be missed. The time allowed for putting questions to candidates will be all the longer if some limit is set on the time taken up by retiring representatives. It is hoped that limitation of "inquest-holding" by retiring representatives will be imposed by the electors present.

QUESTIONS WORTH ASKING

It is hoped that taxpayers will ask a few questions of their retiring mayor and members of council, the answers to which could be very illuminating and instructive. Why did Mayor Bell, Reeve Cook, and Councillors Gundy and Pringle support the hydro commissioners by condoning their "sit-down strike" threat if the hydro building were altered to conform with the town building by-laws? Why did Councillor Fielding change his mind, voting to enforce the hydro to observe the building regulations and then voting to allow the building to stand as it was?

Who succeeded William Large, after his dismissal in January, 1950, as secretary-treasurer of the hydro, and what are the salaries paid to the holder of these offices? Who fired William Large on the morning of Tuesday, January 16, 1951?

Who has received the bulk of the sum of $5,000 voted by council to the Aurora planning board; and what has the planning board done for Aurora?

Why has the council not taken a vote of the citizens on whether or not they want a planning board for Aurora?

NO STATEMENT ON METERS

It seems surprising that no overall statement has so far been made in connection with the meters. Some weeks ago there was a statement made, accompanied by a photograph of the town clerk and his assistant busy at the job of counting up a heap of pennies collected from the meters. But the statement involved the sum of around $70 only, and as far as we know nothing more has been heard of the subject.

An enormous amount of pressure was exerted to get the "scrapes of iron" set up on the sidewalks; enthusiasm was high on the part of a section of the council, especially on the part of Mayor Bell and Councillor Fielding; and we had expected regular announcements from the town hall for the information of the citizens.

No overall statement has thus far been made. It would be interesting to know just how much money has been collected from the meters since their installation. How much money has been received by the town, and how much has gone to the meter company? These are matters of public interest.

RATION THE SPEECHES

At last year's nomination meeting some retiring members of council talked at such length that the large audience became tired and bored, and many left before the proceedings were over. A few possible candidates also left the meeting, having found the flow of verbosity insufferable.

It is hoped that a similar verbal punishment will not be inflicted on the citizens at the coming nomination meeting. This could be prevented by rationing the length of the speeches of retiring representatives. This procedure could be carried out if it were moved and seconded and carried by those present, limiting addresses to a normal length not exceeding 15 minutes.

This year's audience will not, we imagine, be so interested in what has been done - which is fairly well known - but what is to be done in the future. Let us hear about future programs. Long-winded inquests can serve no useful purpose. Taxpayers will, we believe, be very interested in hearing proposals for rectifying the errors of the past.

Welcome Soldier Home

There was a great "Welcome Home" and a day-long stream of callers to greet Pte. Keith Smith of the 2nd battalion of the Princess Patricia Canadian Light Infantry on his return from Korea on Monday, Nov. 19.

Keith is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. Smith of 64 Macmillan Ave., Aurora, and he joined up for the special Korean force on August 22, 1950. He spent one week at Petawawa and from there was transferred to Calgary to undergo special training.

In the front lines for almost a year, serving in D company, this well-known Aurora boy has gone through the entire period of his service without a day's sickness and without suffering injuries or wounds.

Travelling via Japan, Pte. Smith arrived at Vancouver on November 15. At the Union station on Monday morning, the 18th, which he reached at 7:30 a.m., he was greeted by his parents and a large crowd of relatives and friends. He is on leave until January 19. He is understood, however, that he is entitled to his discharge if he so chooses.

The Aurora Junior Chamber of Commerce planned a reception for Pte. Smith at their dinner-meeting at the Masonic hall on Tuesday night, Nov. 20, together with the gifts of a wallet and a scroll of welcome.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING

Successful Trinity Bazaar

New Aurora Choral Society $50. Charity Reward Offer

The local municipal elections will presently absorb town attention. The entry into the mayoral contest of the combative but genial Dr. Crawford Rose may increase the tempo of the bloodless conflict by many degrees. There could be some mercurial verbal interchanges. Meanwhile there are less provocative town events to report.

One of these is the recent most successful bazaar at the Anglican church. This event took place on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 24, and it proved a triumph in every way. This is borne out by reports we have had from Mrs. Stewart, Patrick and Mrs. Tom Newton.

In 17 years of Guild work, Mrs. Patrick tells us, she has never seen such crowds as came in for the Trinity afternoon tea and bazaar; and Mrs. Newton describes it as a record-breaking event. Tribute was paid to Mrs. John Willis, Sr., the convener of the tea rooms, and her many helpers. Mrs. Lorne Ellis is the president of the Guild sponsoring the bazaar.

We are glad to put such a great success for Trinity Anglican church on record.

At Niagara-on-the-Lake

Another happy event took place on Sunday, Nov. 18, at Niagara-on-the-Lake, when the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. M. Cody, Victoria Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley May of Niagara-on-the-Lake, was christened by the Rev. C. Smith. Incidentally, the foregoing Christian names were chosen from both sides of the Cody family.

The godmothers were Miss Mary Walton of Aurora, and Mrs. Arthur Willett of Niagara Falls. Mr. Jay Cody of St. Petersburg, Florida, was godfather. Following the christening ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. May.

The church of Saint Mark is not only a very beautiful edifice, but it is also one of the oldest and most historic Anglican churches in Canada, dating back to the year 1792. We hope to have some notes about it at an early date.

Memorable Movie

As was forecast in these columns, "One Foot in Heaven," proved to be one of the greatest attractions shown at the Royal theatre during the present year. We heard high opinions expressed of it, and Mr. Clifford Griffiths informs us that many visitors to the theatre, some of whom are not regular moviegoers, took time out to say to him how very much they had enjoyed the picture.

This spontaneous expression of pleasure greatly satisfied Mr. Griffiths for the reason that he does not "boost" pictures for the sole commercial reason of filling the theatre. If he advertises that a movie he is putting on is especially good, he does so because he knows it is good. His advertisements can be depended on, and doubtless that is a chief reason why the Royal theatre has continued to show such wonderful progress during the time he has been its manager.

It was a matter of great regret to him that the number of preview tickets were so limited. Otherwise he could have made a large list of invitations from scores of regular theatre-goers from Aurora. Actually the number of tickets available for Aurora numbered only about a dozen or so, the bulk of them being scheduled for neighboring communities.

Don't Change The Name.

"Please, Lions, don't change the name of the Mechanics' hall." That, in effect, is what so many people in Aurora are saying just now.

Choral Society

We are advised of the com mencement after Christmas of an Aurora Choral Society composed of mixed voices. Con ductor will be Mr. John Brad ley, music master at St. Andrew's, who has already originated an orchestra at the college.

Mrs. J. B. E. Garstang, 85 Spruce street, from whom all information concerning the society can be obtained, tells us that already she has had enquiries from Newmarket. All who are interested in the new choral society can obtain details from Mrs. Garstang, phone No. 5500, Aurora, or from Mr. Bradley at St. Andrew's college.

Assistant Town Clerk

The position of assistant town clerk has been filled by the appointment of Mrs. Joan Diamond, and we welcome her as a very pleasant and genial young woman. We believe she will prove a very successful successor to her predecessor.

Mrs. and Mrs. Diamond have recently moved from Toronto to

THURSDAY, THE TWENTY-NINTH DAY OF NOVEMBER, NINETEEN HUNDRED AND FIFTY-ONE

COUNCIL REVIEW

Rest Cure Recommended For Cook, Murray And Pringle: Davies Is Council Problem

Last week we reviewed five members of council: Mayor Bell and Councillors Corbett, Fielding, Gundy and Jones. We gave some of our reasons why we shall not support either Mayor Bell or Councillor Fielding, together with some of our reasons why we shall support the others mentioned. Since we wrote we have heard that Councillor Gundy may not seek re-election. If that is true we shall be sorry, for Bob Gundy is a young man of very considerable ability, and he is a credit to the town council.

We approach now four other members of council, for all of whom we have regard for their personal merits. Personal merits are not, however, what we are concerned with here. We are concerned with them as public representatives. It is their work on council with which we are concerned and with nothing else.

For nearly two years we have observed these four representatives on town work, at usual four-hour sittings at regular council meetings, with a number of special meetings thrown in. Goodness knows, one should be able to form fairly reliable opinions after such lengthy sessions over so long a period.

Reeve Cook

We remember the address to the electors made by Reeve Cook at the nomination meeting in the high school auditorium in November, 1949.

One of the things he mentioned was a desire to become Warden of York County, and he hoped the voters would return him to office so that he might attain his ambition. It was a worthy ambition. There have been only three Wardens of York County chosen from Aurora in the past 100 years. Reeve Cook at that time had our best wishes and we said so.

Two years have passed, and in those two years we have come to the rather sad conclusion that Reeve Cook will never attain his ambition of becoming Warden of York County. Aurora will have to look elsewhere for a future Warden coming from its council ranks. A Reeve who does not possess enough personal confidence to make a recommendation from a council committee of which he is the chairman can hardly expect to aspire to the Wardenship of his county.

Reeve Cook was formerly the chairman of the Aurora town council Fire and Water department. A new fire truck was to be bought and it was the business of Reeve Cook's committee, with himself as chairman, to bring in a recommendation to council. Weeks went by and no recommendation was brought in. Finally Reeve Cook told a surprised council that he felt the responsibility was too big for a committee recommendation and he asked council as a whole to accept the responsibility. The following year Mayor Bell named Reeve Cook's strongest critic to the chairmanship of the Fire and Water department, namely Councillor Corbett.

The trouble with Reeve Cook, it seems to us, is his fear of coming out flat-footed with a decisive yea or nay. He is the veteran member of the Aurora town council and should give leadership. But he gives no leadership. Instead he looks for leadership. Recently he was in a stew over the meters. He wondered what the town would like? And when a number of correspondents sent their views to council the Reeve rounded on them for trying to influence it.

Now, when a public representative gets what he asks for and still doesn't like it, what are you to make of him?

Our candid opinion is that Reeve Cook would be doing a service to his town if he retired from council—as did the deputy-reeve, Harry Corrier, last year—and made way for someone else to step up. Mr. Cook is a comrade. He has nothing to offer the town in the way of new ideas. As for his becoming Warden of York County, we think his chances of climbing to the moon would be a much easier undertaking.

Deputy-reeve Murray

Why has Mr. Murray apparently changed his mind and decided to seek re-election after stating that he was retiring? If his decision to try and keep his seat is motivated by the thought of keeping Mr. Lorne Evans out, we could not congratulate him on the sincerity of such motives. Nor do we think the electors will feel differently.

He has been chairman of the streets committee. The condition of the streets and sidewalks provide no testimonials of successful supervision. We have just been reading a description of these which states: "In most

COUNCIL HIGHLIGHTS

Planning Board Consultant Gets Further $700 Fees Tax That Proved A Phoney!

The Kennedy street boys were back again on Monday night, November 19, pushing their claims for the installation of sewers. It could be that members of council thought they had Dr. Boulding and Dr. Henderson stalled. If they did they were mistaken. They were there before some members of council. And they carried their point. By a majority vote council passed a motion in their favor.

The discussion on the Kennedy street sewers went on for nearly an hour and a half. Dr. Henderson took a back seat in this instance, giving way to Dr. Boulding. We shall continue to oppose Dr. Boulding's planning board campaign; but we would be the first to acknowledge that he is a very clever and persuasive man. We greatly admired the skillful manner in which he supported the petition he introduced.

We understand that Councillor Fielding is the new planning board secretary-treasurer. We don't remember that her appointment was ever brought up at council. But she presented the planning board statement on Monday night. And what was the statement? Details were not read out in council, but we went to the town hall and looked through the folder—thanks to Mr. Everett Kerr, through whose intervention the press ban was removed. The statement is as follows:

Consultant's professional time: 18 hours, $10 per hour, $180.

Consultant's technical time: 104 hours, $5 per hour, $520.

These sums made a further $700 paid to the planning board's out-of-town consultant, for the period ending August 31, 1951. Look's like pretty good sideline for the consultant. Especially so in view of the fact that in 1948 he was paid $812; in 1949, $1,292.50; and in 1950 he was paid $737.50.

So far the out-of-town planning board consultant has received from the taxpayers of Aurora over $3,542. Looks like a pretty good sideline.

And what have the taxpayers of Aurora received for their money? Only a nuisance value. Must this waste of money continue?

It's an ill-wind that blows nobody any good. Councillor Pringle presented a report from the finance committee, of which he is chairman. Among the items listed was a payment to the Aurora Banner publishing company of $228.80, including $20 tax for printing a supply of meter violation tickets. Quite a nice account. It's an ill wind that blows nobody any good!

But for the meters the Aurora Banner publishing company would not have collected those two hundred odd bucks.

The T. Sisman company and the Colls Leather company were back again at council, this time in the form of letters, squawking over their assessments, which they still maintained were too heavy. Council could do nothing about it. The court had ruled, and that was that.

Against that background of grumbling it is pleasant to recall the fact that other industries and commercial houses accepted the assessor's judgments, among these being Aurora Textiles Ltd., Universal Insulations, J. P. Field-

THE ELECTORS OF AURORA

Because I believe in the inherent greatness of the Town of Aurora and in the brightness of its future, and

Because I believe that every public-spirited citizen should make some worthwhile contribution, outside of his business, to the life of his town, and

Because I believe that the Aurora Town Council has been as a flock without a shepherd, or an orchestra without a leader,

I have decided to contest the office of Mayor which I vacated two years ago at the forthcoming civic elections.

To all my friends who have urged me to return to this high office, and to all electors who are dissatisfied with the present lack of leadership, I appeal for active support. I cannot contact you personally—re-election is in your hands.

Dr. Crawford ROSE

OBITUARY Mrs. Rena Hamilton

A member of the Free Methodist church, Mrs. Rena Hamilton, Newmarket, died on November 2 at York County hospital. She had been in poor health for several years.

She was born in London, Ont., in June, 1867, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Benn, and in 1889 married James MacDonald, who predeceased her many years ago. In 1918 she married Wesley Hamilton, who survives her.

Also surviving are a son, Alfred S. MacDonald; a daughter, Mrs. Nora E. Bull; a sister, Mrs. Anna Irwin; and seven grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Rev. N. F. Perry conducted funeral services on Nov. 5 at the chapel of Roadhouse and Rose. Pallbearers were H. G. Gibbons, Walter Creed, R. Tomlinson, Frank Climpson, Henry Sedore, Chesley Lee. Interment was in Newmarket cemetery.

OBITUARY James Widdis

Formerly employed by the Office Specialty Manufacturing Co. Ltd., James Widdis, of 546 Anne St., Toronto, died suddenly on Sunday, Nov. 4, 1951.

He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Widdis, and was born in Newmarket on December 19, 1880.

He was employed by the Canadian Comstock Co., Islington, at the time of his death, and was a member of the Anglican church. His chief recreational interest was hockey.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Sadie Kirk, Newmarket, and Mrs. Marrs, Galien, Mich.; and several nieces and nephews. A brother, Joseph, and three other sisters, May (Mrs. Turner), Grace (Mrs. Hisson) and Annie, are all deceased.

Rev. Mr. Rhodes conducted funeral services at the chapel of Roadhouse and Rose on November 7. Pallbearers were Wilfred Codlin, T. F. Doyle, Norman Trivett, Albert Howlett, Toddy Duncan and Maurice Winters.

Interment was in Newmarket cemetery.

Pages from the Editor's Notebook

We have been following with a good deal of interest the career of a Newmarket woman who seems to have more than her share of luck. Or is it persistence? On second thought, the latter. She enters every sort of contest imaginable. She must mail thousands of letters each year, fill out countless entry blanks, buy an infinite number of tickets.

Over a year, her winnings may seem quite imposing to those not in the know, but in point of fact, she enters so many contests she just can't help winning a few of them. It's the law of averages.

But even so, one does wonder a bit when she enters a contest without knowing it and walks off with a grand prize.

We were attracted by the glow in the sky to north on Sunday evening and drove up Yonge St. to the Round Hill. From there we could see a worm of fire extending along the horizon.

We cut across the Sharon side-road and up Second St. where we could see the fire more clearly. Apparently, it had caught on the east side of the marsh and driven by the wind, was burning clear over to the river.

We went on up the third to the township line and from a hill to the west, overlooking the marsh, we could see the whole panorama of the fire. It was quite imposing, the distance and height lending the flames a suggestion of a roaring inferno which they no doubt lacked a closer view.

The reflection in the sky was visible far south of Newmarket, we are told. . . .

Last Friday was nomination day for several district municipalities. We attended as many as we could. At East Gwillimbury, we heard Longford Pegg beginning to warm up but the expected fireworks didn't materialize. Newmarket's nominations were quiet too although the crowd was the largest in recent years. There was a bit of an argument towards the end but it petered out.

Mrs. Mathews was speaking and when interrupted, appealed to Chairman Fred Lundy. His only comment was that "it was a political meeting." Mrs. Mathews took him at his word and went right along without heed-ing the interruptions.

Back to East Gwillimbury: Reeve Norman Doyle of North Gwillimbury was an unexpected visitor to the sister township meeting and was prevailed upon to say a few words. Looking out over the audience, he remarked on the absence of women. "Up in North Gwillimbury, half our audience is made up of women," he said.

"They're not closing roads down here," someone shouted from the audience to accom-panying laughter. . . .

Interesting too are the positions of Reeve John Rye of East Gwillimbury and Deputy Reeve J. L. Spillette of Newmarket. Rye is a strong con-tender for the job of one of the warden's commissioners in county next year, and Spillette is a strong contender as warden. Both men were acclaimed in their respective munici-palities.

It would make a strong north-ern representation on county council if it worked out. More power to them both.

There was an excellent turn-out to Newmarket nominations, excellent, that is, in compari-son to other years. Clerk Wesley Brooks counted 170 pres-ent at 9 o'clock, and a few more came in later on. At that, however, it is not very much from a population of over 5,000. One councillor remarked that it was about time the people of town realized they had a share in the government of their community, that it wasn't just a job for the councillors. True enough too. Local government is the cornerstone of our democratic system. Ignore its obligations and we'll lose it to a centralized machine grinding away at Queen's Park, sure as shooting.

AGE TWELVE

THURSDAY, THE TWENTY-NINTH DAY OF NOVEMBER, NINETEEN HUNDRED AND FIFTY-ONE

ELECTING NEW COUNCIL

Ten candidates are seeking the six seats on the council. Of those ten, six of them are seeking re-elec-tion. Of the remaining four, one says that his engineering experience will benefit the town; another says his experience with road work will save tax dollars; the third offers a solution to the smoke nuisance; and the fourth offers zeal to serve the taxpayers.

All of the six seeking re-election are standing on their records as councillors during the past year. At nomination night proceedings, they defended or explained what they had undertaken, and discussed what they hoped to accomplish.

The fact that there are so many candidates for council is a healthy manifestation of civic interest and the workings of democracy. The candidates are all to be commended for their willingness to undertake the onerous processes of local administration. Let no citizen delude himself that these candidates are seeking a "soft touch". Council business in a town the size of Newmarket is a daily demand on time and effort.

Perhaps it is this heavy requirement of day to day detail that provides the grounds for the one general criticism we would make of last year's council, the criticism that there was no leadership by council, no apparent vision. It is a criticism that must apply as well to the new candidates. None of them offered the voters of Newmarket any suggestion of a concern with matters beyond the immediate scope of municipal administration.

In a word, neither those seeking re-election nor fresh contenders showed gifts of imagination and leadership.

It is easier to consider the record of the six candidates seeking re-election. Council last year undertook several large projects and brought them to acceptable conclusions. They made decisions which were largely to the benefit of the town. The council, on its record, was adequate, but only that. No more.

Nowhere, in the proceedings of council, is there any indication of leadership. Council did its job but that is all. The new candidates offer no more than the conviction that they can do the same job, only a little better. It is a circumstance to be regretted because Newmarket could use a little vision, a little leadership, a little concern with the less immediate future.

In past council contests, the issues which have been placed before the voters were frequently those of policy as much as those of immediate consideration like new roads and sidewalks. There was the contest when Mr. Jack Luck ran on the strength of his "second Main St." proposal. And, from time to time, there have been similar issues which involved matters removed from routine administration.

It is unfortunate that of all the ten candidates for council, none made his platform one of imaginative leadership. Heaven knows, there is need for it. What, for example, is going to become of Newmarket's business section. It is cramped into a comparatively small area. Has someone any ideas how this situation can be eased?

There was a good deal of talk about traffic control, but did anyone arise with a proposal for a large-scale safety campaign? It is not enough to nab the offenders; there is plenty of scope for safety education.

Newmarket was put on the map a few years ago with its assessment row. It gave the town considerable publicity. Since then, however, no one has undertaken a campaign to publicize Newmarket under happier circum-stance, but such publicity would be of immense value. Even on a matter so comparatively simple as the erection of publicity signs on Yonge St., council has stalled since June.

Chicago: John Benhini, of London, England, holding an ordinary carving fork in his mouth, caught a turnip hurled from the summit of the Masonic Temple, impaling the vegetable squarely upon the tines of the fork.

THE OLD HOME TOWN

We admit that the cause may be that council is bogged down in the detail of its heavy spending and mechanical requirements. But we insist that if Newmarket is to have any sort of future, vision and imagination are needed now. They weren't evident in council last year. They weren't evident on the nomination platform on Friday night. And that was cause for regret.

But for all of that, Newmarket voters have before

Things are looking up in Cuttin Corners these days and things are being looked up since the nominations. Mayor Maynott, who has said each year since 1938 that he would not run the next year, was acclaimed again.

"Certainly appreciate this here acclamation," the mayor said in his acclamation address. "It's a real honor to be acclaimed, I claim. 'Course, this here is positively my last year on council. Gotta quit. Pressure of business, y'know."

Mayor Maynott is a steam fitter by pressure, I mean profession. Reeve Ward. N. Orbust was also acclaimed, as well as Deputy-Reeve Mooney Sippal.

Things which are being looked up in Cuttin Corners this year are old documents which might prove that the town hall is not situated in the centre of Main St. plumb.

As everyone knows, Mrs. Helen Agale, storm centre of many a Cuttin Corners municipal election, has unearthed a civic scandal, namely that Main St. is where Thimble Park should be and that Thimble Park is not where it is at all. It should be where the old distillery was moved from. A former assessor was a digitalis addict and got all the lots mixed up on the town plan, she claims.

It follows that the town hall is right in the middle of Main St. "It can all be settled out in the old distillery," said Mrs. Helen Agale at a recent council meeting.

"If you date our Cuttin Corners history back to the distillery, you will find that there were evil doings then and big interests have kept it hushed up all these years.

"Yes, it's the big interests but I am not afraid of the big interests. I'm not interested in getting anything out of the big interests, it's the taxpayers I'm interested in."

"Yas, and I kin imagine you will get all you can out of them," Councillor Bust said aside.

There was a shrill blast as of the Robert E. Lee as Mrs. Helen Agale stormed to her feet. "I heard that comment, I heard it. Mr. Mayor, there is something rotten in Denmark when I must suffer these stings and arrows. I demand an exclamation from this member or resign."

"You may resign," said the mayor.

"I mean he may resign," said Mrs. Agale.

"I just said that I kin imagine you will get all you can for them," explained Councillor Bust.

"Fer who, I mean for whom?" said Helen Agale.

"The taxpayers."

"Very well, then."

It is stimulating repartee like this which makes Cuttin Corners politics so interesting. One razor sharp municipal wit is pitted full strength against the other. There are wheels within wheels, heels within wheels and sometimes cogs. Mrs. Helen Agale is often referred to as a wrench.

But Mrs. Helen Agale is what keeps Cuttin Corners council on its toes. It takes a woman to keep some municipal stability in the place. No matter what they say about her, Helen is good for politics up in the Corners.

The only lady who is running for council, Mrs. Agale, is making this here her platform, rather, this her platform. Her platform is based on the outright outrage of the town hall being in the middle of Main St.

"If elected, I will tear up Main St. and move it to Thimble Park and Thimble Park will be transplanted to the old lot where the distillery was, and I am one who will always carry out an election promise. After all, it's the lot of the taxpayer that I am interested in and anything I can do for the taxpayer, I will."

But the electors of Cuttin Corners are not to be fooled.

As Councillor Bust says in his campaign speeches, vote as you like or Bust.

The Top Six Inches

We are wondering whether it wouldn't be better to forget about the whole milk business and devote our energies to more interesting ways of making a living in agriculture like keeping a good flock of sheep or growing seed grain.

Early last spring, the Toronto market producers started negotiating. There was a new Milk Board appointed. Since then all parties concerned jumped through all the official loops, went through more contortions than a professional wrestler and here we are at the end of the year, and no better off.

The mess in milk is getting deeper and the political currents that have kicked us around are as strong as ever.

Now that the elections are over and the same government has been given a pat on the back for having created the Milk Control mess, the Board met again. At this sitting, the producers and the distributors submitted a new agreement. It called for an increase in price to the producer and a price to the distributor. It was shelved for further consideration.

We will give you three guesses why. Yes, you are right! It was the do or die stand of the Mayor that did it. Having recovered from radio appearances, the Grey cup game, the hot stove league, Hiram the Great took his place on the board and with his eyes firmly fixed on the election date of December 4, emitted bleats and grunts of outrage befitting a man in need of votes.

We would be very surprised if the Milk Control Board could hold another sitting until after this election to discuss the price of milk for the Toronto market. But the same is true of the other boards.

We think that it is time that this sorry farce of buck passing and political deals and electioneering were stopped.

We think that it is time for some housecleaning on the board. Our own producers' organization is not without fault and is guilty of many things. But they are innocent and powerless in the face of this open and brazen lust for power and position.

SWIMMING POOL

Members of Newmarket Lions club, and their guests, members of the Aurora club, heard on Monday night the story of how Milverton got its swimming pool. The story came to light during the course of the club's investigation into the possibilities of a pool for Newmarket. It is an incredible story of difficulties, but it is a story with a happy ending since, thanks to the persistence of one man, the pool was opened this summer.

The man responsible, Mr. Robert Crocker, told the story of the pool in detail. He had plenty of suggestions, made from his own hard experience, but what stood out was the way costs were cut by the use of voluntary labor. Equally emphasized was the need for 100 percent support of such a project.

Newmarket has had plenty of experience with voluntary labor, at the arena and more recently, in the installation of the floodlights. These projects were successful although the same small group appeared to be doing all the work. In Milverton, with a population less than a quarter of Newmarket's, there were as many as 70 volunteers at work at one time. Newmarket should have a volunteer labor pool of over 500 to draw on.

But the amount of volunteer labor depends upon the strength of public support for the project, so that it would seem to us that of foremost importance in undertaking a swimming pool is the assurance of solid public support. We think that support is there but it will need a little encouragement. If all those who favor the pool were to undertake the missionary work now, when the time comes to start work, that support will be ready.

Ten Seek Six Seats On Newmarket Council

The following are brief excerpts from the nomination night addresses of council and school board candidates for Newmarket:

Major Vale: Reviewed the road and sidewalk building program in Newmarket which has cost to date $213,447. The proposed sewage disposal plant was a major consideration in the coming year. The question of financing it was difficult to answer. He was considering some form of charge in which those who had the greatest use for the system would pay the most, those not using it wouldn't pay at all. It would cost in the neighborhood of $300,000.

There was water enough for the present and to provide for future expansion for some years. Councillor Birrell had suggested a reservoir fed by the Bogartown creek.

Traffic laws were perfectly fair; in fact they should be stricter. Police action perfectly proper. He paid tribute to town clerk and town employees for job well done.

Reeve Arthur D. Evans: Told of improvements in water system; was critical of proposals to pipe water from Simcoe. Felt it impractical. Commented on the opening of new wings at Newmarket and Sutton high schools; provided top standard of educational opportunity through whole North York area. Praised work of health unit and told of the baby clinics being started.

He described the start of the conservation authority and discussed plans to reforest the river banks and clean up the river itself.

Deputy-reeve J. L. Spillette: Described the year as one of great spending with more to come in the proposed sewage disposal plant and the taking over of Main St. from the county. While the debenture debt was high in the neighborhood of $400,000 net, it bore a moderate relation to the total assessment of $4,300,000 and was not considered heavy.

He felt that Newmarket's financial position was quite sound, and able to support additional spending nicely.

Edward Wrightman: Extremely critical of the manner in which road improvement program undertaken. He criticized resurfacing with black top and said that a better job could have been done by other means. Said one section of road wasn't graded; another section of sidewalk already heaving.

As inspector for highways department, felt that the job done was inadequate. He was critical of the manner some town equipment not used.

He felt the arena had become too commercialized, that the kiddies weren't getting the use of it they should. He would fight for the kiddies of town, he said.

He was critical of the manner in which the new bridge was being placed at Wellington St., and particularly of cutting down trees.

Lorne Paynter: Seeking fourth term, has enjoyed the work and done his best to see that the town got good government. Signs had been placed on the approaches to the town re the enforcement of traffic laws. Newmarket very fortunate in its traffic accident record thanks to the vigilance of police.

As chairman of the garbage committee, felt that a good job had been done.

Charles Boyd: Born and raised in Newmarket, he had a large stake in the town and was seeking office because he felt it a responsibility all citizens should share in. Wasn't making any wild promises but did believe his business experience, his knowledge of the town and his interest in the town would be valuable on council. He had no chip on his shoulder, simply would like the opportunity to lend his experience to the administration of the town.

Rudy Renzus: Was chairman of the relief committee and had not had much to do. He had done his best in council, and if elected, would continue to serve to the best of his ability.

Tom Birrell: Answering criticism about "commercializing" of arena, quoted the balance sheet of the operations of arena, pointing out that arena could not carry itself if it were to give more free time than at present. If the cost of the arena was to be paid out of town pocket, then the public had the opportunity to make this suggestion at the regular weekly meetings of the arena commission. The commission was doing its best to provide maximum of public service and still pay its way.

The renovation of the town hall under his direction had given town public building to be proud of at considerable saving. A new fire hall was needed to protect present equipment.

Aubrey Seythes: Criticized lack of engineering knowledge in council undertakings; mistakes had been made which could have been avoided. He agreed that the new fire hall should be built; it all added to efficiency of fire department and the efficiency of fire department brought down fire insurance rates. (In a later statement, he said he thought the smoke and soot nuisance could be cleared up by close co-operation between council and businesses providing there was some one on council with the necessary engineering experience.

Frank Bowser: The work done on the roads and walks in Newmarket was done as recommended by reliable engineers and by a reliable firm. Other methods were not practical. We did what we were told was the most practical way of improving our streets. As far as the bridge was concerned the plans were checked and then re-checked by department of highways engineers.

This year, we worked with the horticultural society in the planting of 400 trees in town. Every year, there are 20 or 30 trees cut down as a hazard or nuisance.

The use of asphalt instead of concrete saved the town two-thirds of cost of redoing sidewalks.

Mrs. Violet MacNaughton: Tax rate must be held down. Owners and tenants alike suffer as taxes go up. Know there are many things required by town but why have so many essential expenditures been left to this year instead of being spread out. No one has mentioned the smoke trouble. Very much incensed over the lack of consideration. Council should have appointed someone to approach industries and other sources of smoke, talk it over, find out the cause, what can be done. Must find out who causes the smoke, and what can be done to end it. There is room for the friendly spirit of co-operation.

A. G. "Mickey" Smith: You've all heard what has been said here. I can say no more. (Mr. Smith failed to qualify, leaving ten candidates for six council seats.)

Four Qualify In Race For Three Board Seats

Mrs. Mina Best: Have tried to get things done by the board on behalf of the school children of the town and have been unable to make the board act so that there is nothing left to do but to go on the board to remedy these complaints. There is something wrong when nothing is done about justifiable complaints.

Mrs. Stella Curtis: Past two years have opened my eyes to a lot of people. Delegations welcomed by the board. Seeking re-election to help every child of every taxpayer. Was congratulated by the Inspector for work on the board. School population is up and will continue to rise and there is much to be done.

Mrs. Caroline Ion: As mother of two young children, I have an interest in the administration of schools. I have been brought up in a family, members of which served on school boards. I am familiar with needs of schools. If elected, I will do my best to make the school administration what you personally would want it to be.

Mrs. Madeline Mathews: Have served six years on the school board and felt that I did good job. Teachers' qualifications and other standards in school administration have been raised. Pointed out that power of board is limited in many instances, that where possible, the board did everything they could to answer requests from delegations, but in many instances, board simply didn't have power to act.

Another kindergarten on west side of town was prohibited by province and bus had to be used to take children to Prince Charles.

Mrs. Mathews: said she wasn't seeking office again because she would not be in town often enough to look after board business. Mrs. Seldon, also nominated, said she would stand on her record and had nothing to say. She also didn't qualify. George Phimister, the sixth nominee, was absent.

CHARLES E. BOYD

CANDIDATE FOR COUNCIL

Newmarket, Ontario.
November 23rd, 1951.

TO THE VOTERS OF NEWMARKET,
NEWMARKET, ONTARIO.

DEAR FELLOW VOTER:

I am writing to you at this time to tell you that my name will stand as a candidate for the 1952 Newmarket Council.

Many of you know me. I was born and raised in Newmarket, educated in Newmarket Public and High Schools and received my B.A. from the University of Toronto. I am a tax payer in Newmarket. My business of Real Estate and Insurance has given me an insight into the problems and wishes of the Voters of Newmarket and I feel that I could make a definite contribution to the management of this town.

I am fully aware of the added responsibilities and work involved if elected to council. I am, however, prepared to give such time as may be required to carry on my duties fully and faithfully.

I am not going to criticize the work of past Councils, although in many cases I may not have agreed with their decisions. Sufficient to say that if you elect me as your representative for the 1952 Newmarket Council, I will strive to serve you, the people of Newmarket, in an honorable, just and efficient manner. Remember it is your vote that elects a candidate to Council.

I respectfully solicit your vote for Council on December 3.

Yours very truly,

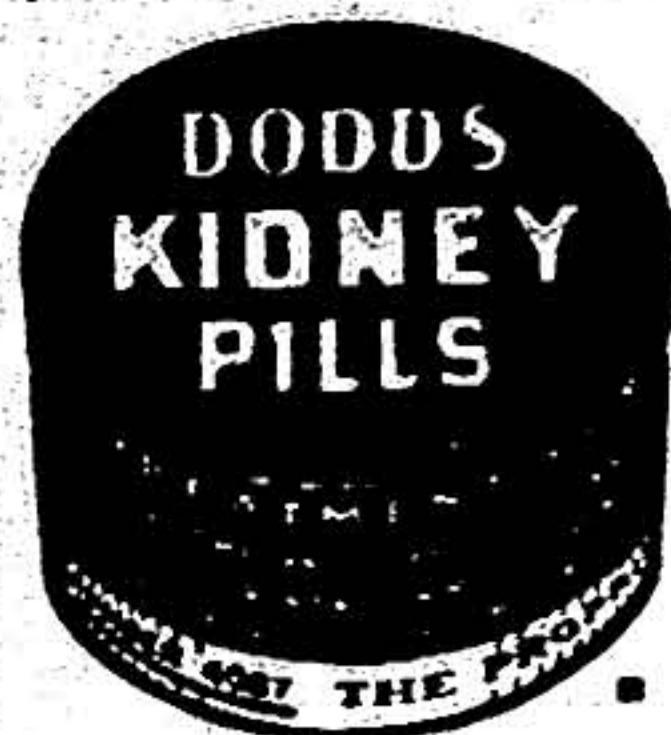

CHARLES E. BOYD

P.S. If you require transportation to or from the polls please telephone 559.

Because of the short space of time between nomination day and election day, it is impossible to contact each elector personally. I would appreciate your support and if elected to council, I will do my best to warrant your confidence in me.

My platform is:

Better supervision of construction of roads and sidewalks and their general maintenance; more consideration for school children in regards to free skating.

Award York Plowmen On Home Competition

Contestants in the York County Junior Farmers' Home Plowing competition were presented with their prizes at their annual banquet at Victoria Square church. The Marion MacGregor trophy for the highest scoring land of the 30 fields was awarded to Bill Thomas of Maple, who also won the Eckardt tea service for first in the walking plow class.

Special guests were three of the York County Junior Farmers who won premier honors at the recent International Plowing Match: Norman Tyndall, Richmond Hill, president of the County Junior Farmers; Eugene Timbers of Milliken who will leave New York on Jan. 5 aboard the Queen Mary for a five week trip in Great Britain and Europe; and Merle Timbers of Aurora, who, with Eugene Timbers, won the inter-county walking plow class for York at the International.

Following a few remarks by Mrs. Elton Armstrong, Armitage, president of the Women's Institutes for North York District, and Reeve Winfred Timbers, of Stouffville, representing County Council, the prizes were announced by W. M. Cockburn, Newmarket, agricultural representative for York County.

The prize winners were (in order of merit): Class 1, walking plows, Bill Thomas, Maple, Lloyd Balsdon, Queensville; Class 2, tractors, Ellis Britton, Agincourt (Jack Fraser watch); Bruce Timbers, Stouffville; Leslie Smith, R. R. 1, Gormley; Bill Clark, R. 2, Gormley;

Class 4, tractors, Murray Cupples, Holt (Weston Lions club tray); Carl Timbers, Stouffville; Lloyd Smith, Mount Albert; Bill Taylor, Sharon; Jack Shadlock, Agincourt; Class 5, boys 16 and under, Andrew Watson, Woodbridge (T. Eaton tray); Merle Timbers, Aurora; Jim Morton, Queensville;

Class 6, beginners, John Pugh, Stouffville (Floyd Perkins' set of wrenches); Alvin Pegg, Sharon; Bob Armstrong, Armitage; Bob Pugh, Aurora; Class 7, girls' tractor, Mrs. Audrey Cameron, Woodbridge (Clarence Graham tea set).

For the best land plowed by a boy or girl beginner, the James McLean memorial tray was awarded to Andrew Watson of Woodbridge, and the specials by Clark Young of Unionville for the four youngest contestants went to Leonard Morton, Queensville, 12, and to three 14-year-old 'plowmen', Douglas Graham, Stouffville; Carl Timbers, Stouffville; Bernard Taylor, Sharon.

President Norman Tyndall presided and entertainment was contributed by members of the Vellore club under the direction of Carl Boynton, Woodbridge, who is York County director on the Ontario Junior Farmers' Association.

Scholarships for a week's short course at the Ontario Agricultural College were presented to the following winners in the various project clubs: foods, Miss Moira Gill, Thistletown; clothing, Miss Evelyn Hare, Maple; Schomberg Calf Club, Bob Irwin, Schomberg; Woodbridge Calf Club, Bob Beynon, Maple; Schomberg Swine Club, Warren Pettifer, Schomberg; York Baby Beef Club, Miss Jocelyn Easton, Gormley; tractor maintenance Club, Elmer Johnston, Queensville. Diplomas for meritorious standing were presented to John Sheardown and Glen Hulse of Schomberg, and Gerald Livingston of Woodbridge, all having previously won scholarships.

Special guests at the head table included deputy minister of agriculture, C. D. Graham; agricultural representative W. M. Cockburn, his assistant, E. K. Pearson, and the home economist, Mrs. E. G. Clarke, all of Newmarket, the baby beef club team that won the provincial competition at Guelph recently, Miss Sylvia Easton of Gormley and Brownie Weir, Milliken. The latter expressed the thanks of the juniors to the Kiwanians for their support and hospitality, and the speaker for his inspiring address.

Following the luncheon the young folks were the guests of the Royal Winter Fair.

"The ultimate view of all women in hospital auxiliary work is that of improving their local hospital in order to give the best possible service and comfort to the citizens who enter them as patients," said Mrs. R. J. Rogers in her report on the Ontario Hospital association convention. Mrs. Rogers, president of the York County Hospital auxiliary, presented her report at the November meeting of the group. She attended the convention as this auxiliary's official delegate.

More than $100,000 was raised last year by 80 auxiliaries in Ontario who presented their reports at the convention. Much interest was shown in Mrs. Rogers' report on the work of the York County Hospital auxiliary.

"Voluntary hospital workers first to give real impetus to community hospital consciousness," said Mrs. Oliver Rhyns, president of the new National Canadian council of Hospital auxiliaries. "In the early days they were responsible even for the management and conduct of the community hospital."

"The services rendered by these voluntary groups during the past year were many and varied. They varied from providing expensive equipment to the hemming of diapers for the nursery. Scholarships for nurses; decorating and furnishing of nurses' residences (including a room for the nurses to entertain their gentlemen friends); installation of electric elevators, library and equipment; stocking Samaritan cupboards; follow-up hospital care with special diets, eye glasses, dentures, special shoes and braces; Christmas and Thanksgiving treats; concerts for ward patients; furnishing of rooms; provision of oxygen equipment, floor polishers, kitchen equipment and linen; these, and many more such things, are ways in which the auxiliaries assist their local hospitals."

"Funds for this work were raised by teas, suppers and bazaars; penny sales, tag days, opportunity shops, donation days and the sale of handmade articles and jams and jellies."

Shirtmakers say the preference of Canadian men for shirts with generous shoulder room reflects the fact this is a vigorous young country of hard-working people.

This community would like to extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Percy Forester at Strange on the 50th anniversary of their golden wedding, which they celebrated on Wednesday, Nov. 28. Mount Pisgah was their home until 18 years ago, when they moved to their present home, May they continue to have many more years together.

Mrs. R. C. Baycroft and Mrs. E. Smith visited the Bogartown Institute meeting at the home of Mrs. Davidson, Gorham St., on Tuesday of last week.

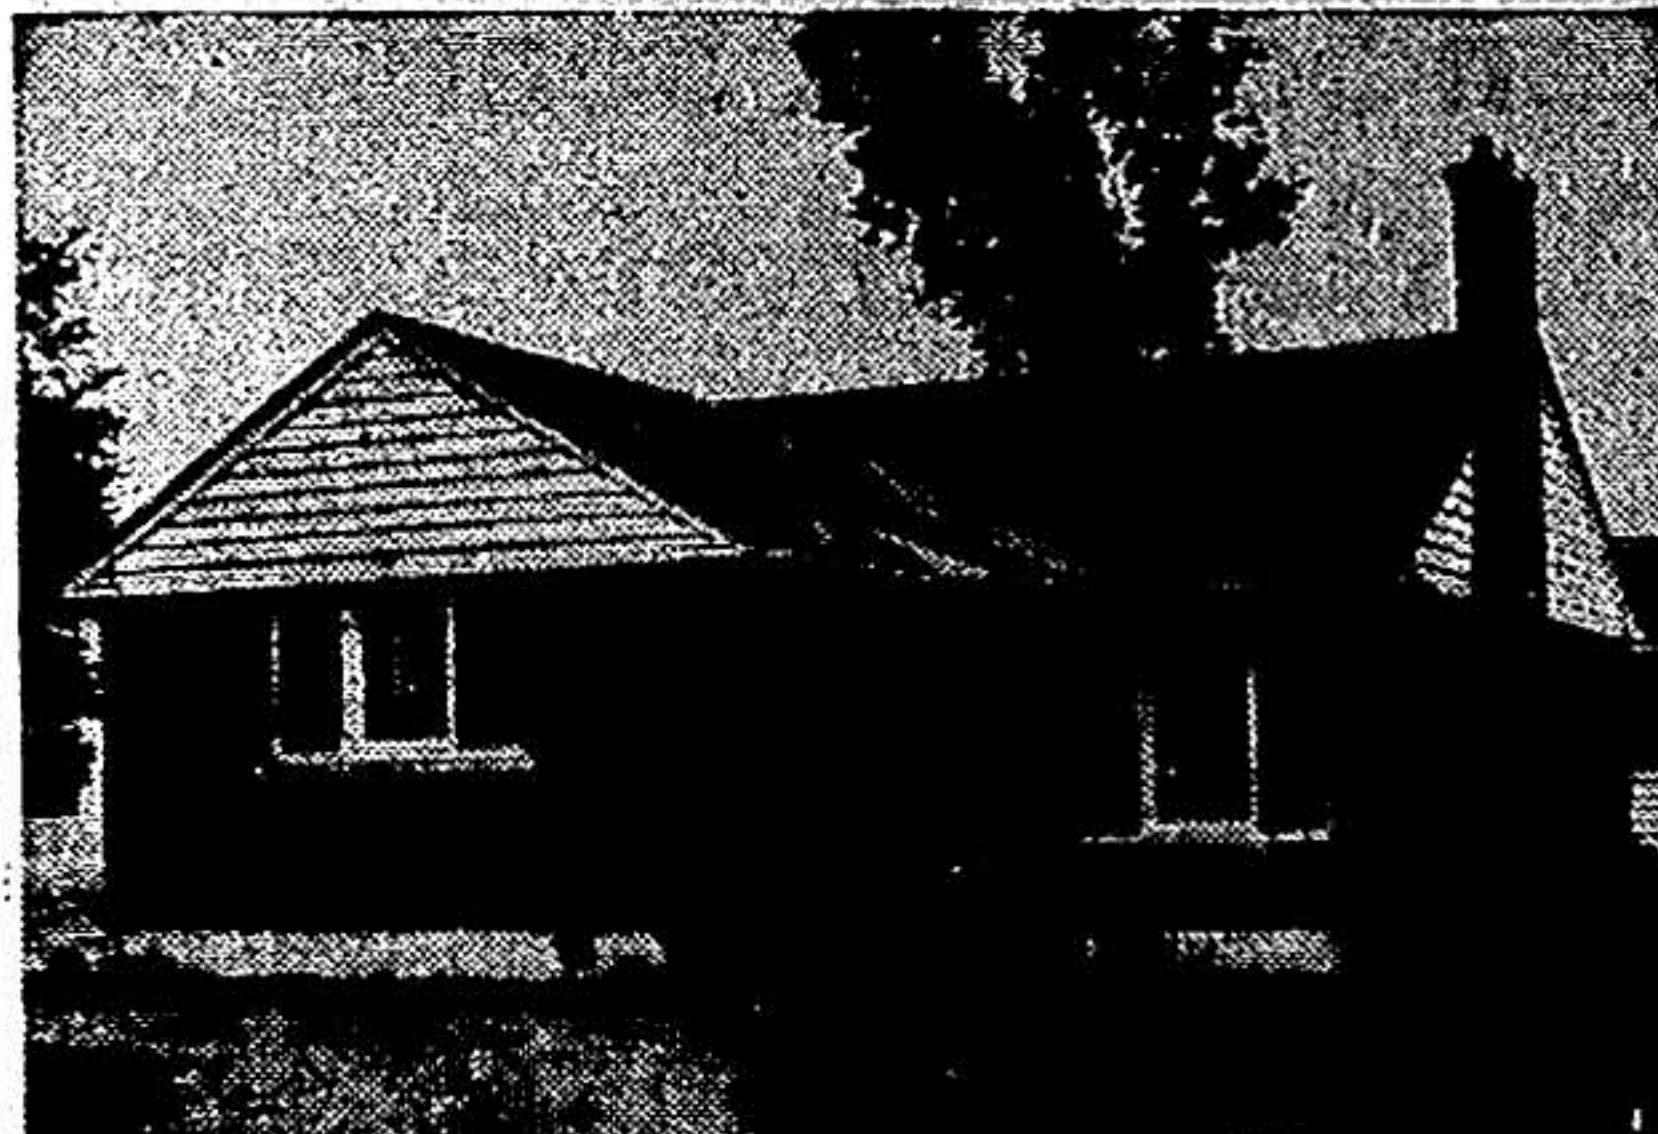

Mr. and Mrs. R. Hodgson, Toronto, visited Mr. and Mrs. Ian Reid on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Stong and Mrs. Annie Morton, Edgeley, were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Les. Smith and family.

Mrs. Frances Price is visiting her daughter in Hamilton for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Hoare, Todmorden, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. MacDonald and family last Sunday.

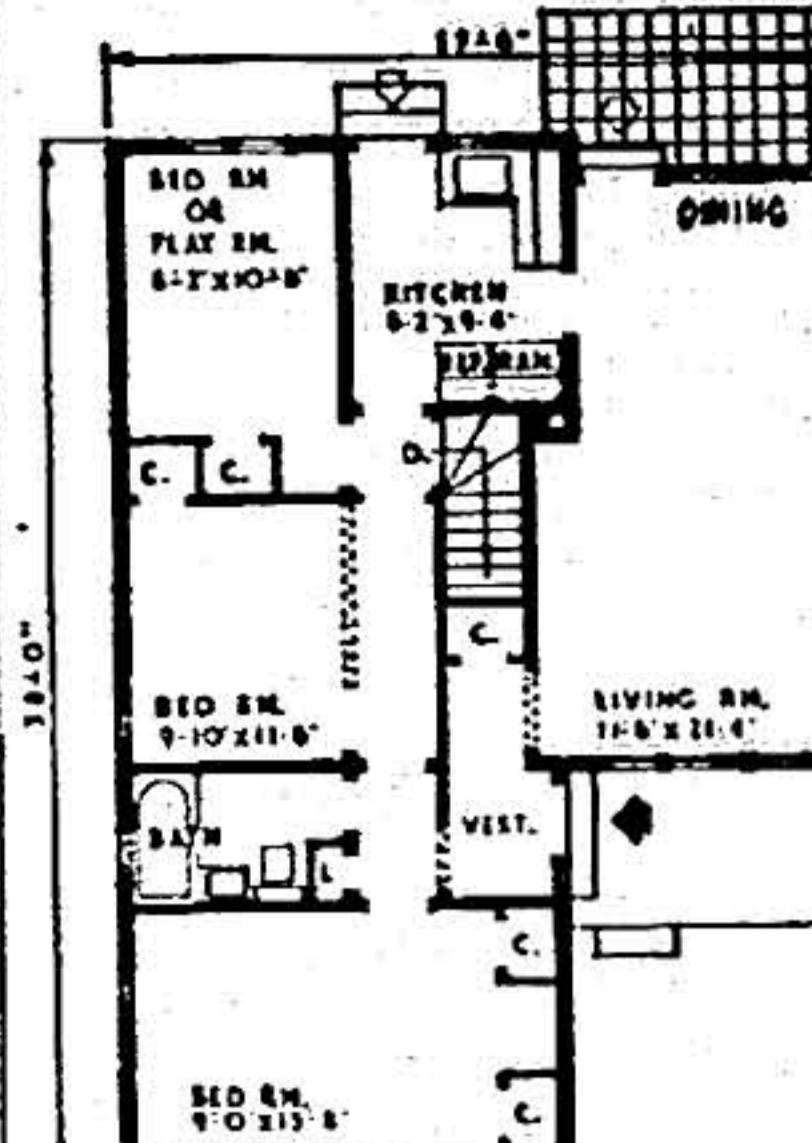

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Emmer-son, Gladys and Irene of Nestleton were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gamble and family.

Architect Michael Dixon of Ottawa, who has designed seven NHA houses, fashioned this modern, roomy bungalow for the living comfort of the average family—parents and two children.

The master bedroom and the children's bedrooms are confined to one side of the house for privacy with the bathroom conveniently located to serve all three. As suggested in the floor plan, one of the smaller bedrooms may be used to advantage as a playroom until it is required for sleeping accommodation. There are two clothes closets in the master bedroom, one in each of the children's bedrooms, and a linen closet beside the door to the bathroom.

The living-dining room, extending along the entire right side of the house, is well lighted by the large windows at both the front and rear of the room. The dining section adjoins the compact kitchen for ease in serving meals. The two bedrooms are separated by a central hall.

Ottawa owner of the house illustrated changed the location of the chimney from the position shown in the original house plan to include a fireplace on the right wall of the living-dining room.

For estimating purposes, the area of the bungalow is 870 square feet and the cubic contents measure 16,720 cubic feet.

Working drawings for this plan, known as Design No. 50-19, are available from any office of Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation at minimum cost.

Hospital Auxiliary

"One hundred and twelve firms had booths beautifully decorated with their various equipment and products for use in hospitals. Among them was one from Canadian Hoffman Machinery Co. Ltd. To the swirl of bag pipes, the convention members lined up and passed through the exhibitors' department.

"Problems relating to spiralling hospital costs, the needs peculiar to the chronically ill and the manner in which voluntary hospital workers could assist were discussed at length by various members of the medical and nursing professions. Life memberships were presented to eight ladies in recognition for outstanding service to the association."

OIL BURNER

saves you money

Iron Fireman's

Vortex Home is the reason

No other oil burner has this fuel-saving flame. Iron Fireman's whirling Vortex flame starts above the grate line, covering the hearth and blanketing the sidewalls of the furnace. The rich radiant heat circulates through your home instead of going up the chimney... Saves up to 30% on fuel bills.

And what wonderful head-to-toe comfort you enjoy. Reduces stratified cold air along the floors—you get steady, even heat quickly.

Complete "packaged" units for warm air, steam or hot water heating, with built-in Vortex oil burner are available too.

See for yourself how an Iron Fireman Vortex Oil Burner can save you money. See us or phone for free heating survey. Immediate installation

Ordinary gas-type burners release heat in the same way it cannot be stopped once it is started. Result is uneven heat... high fuel bills.

Iron Fireman's bow-shaped flame covers the grate line, applying heat instantly to the entire and primary heating surface. Saves up to one gallon of oil out of every three.

Ordinary gas-type burners release heat in the same way it cannot be stopped once it is started. Result is uneven heat... high fuel bills.

Needlecraft News

THE GAY HOLIDAY season is close at hand. This means entertaining at home against a background of Christmas tree, holly and mistletoe. Whether you're giving formal dinners, Christmas morn breakfast or evening snacks, you'll want to keep your table setting in tune with this festive season.

Individual Place Mats

Individual place mats have become very popular for breakfast, luncheon or informal dinner table settings. They're colorful, easy to launder and inexpensive to make. When you're setting your breakfast table — particularly for that special after-midnight snack or breakfast on Christmas morning — make your table as bright and gay as possible. As a centerpiece you can use an oval or round mirror partially covered with glistening artificial snow creating a park skating scene with the use of toy figures, houses and trees. The silverware you use will be determined by the type of breakfast or snack you plan to serve.

Luncheon Decorations

If you're having a few friends in for luncheon during the holiday period, you'll want to seat them at a holiday-mood table. Your centerpiece could be a large bowl filled with holly branches from which emerge gaily colored wax choir boys and cherubs. Individual silver settings will probably include the luncheon fork, salad fork, luncheon knife, cream soup spoon, with butter spreader on the butter plate.

Informal Family Gatherings

Holiday dinners for the family can be informal. Place mats again, are often used. Your centerpiece should be graceful and not overpowering. There are many ready-made centerpieces that you can buy, but it's more fun to make your own. You can wire pinecones (real or artificial) on sprays and place candles in holders in the midst of them. The pieces of silver used are the same as those used on the luncheon table. A teaspoon could be added, if you are serving fruit cup. There should be no more pieces at each plate, however; dessert silver is never placed on the table since it is brought in with the dessert course.

Pine Tree Motif

The place mat shown here is flavored with real Christmas spirit. The mat is made of forest green broadcloth with pine tree appliques in white percale. White percale napkins are used to carry out the frosted look. The finished mat measures 18 x 12 inches. You'll enjoy dressing up your table with a set of these mats. A direction leaflet with cutting diagrams and sewing directions for making this PLACE SET FOR FOUR is available to you. To obtain it, just send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Needlework Department of this paper and ask for Leaflet No. E-1690.

DELL-PATTENDEN

The home of Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, Kewick, was the scene of a quiet wedding, Saturday, Nov. 10, 1951, when Tona Mary Pattenden became the bride of Pte. Stanley Dell of Owen Sound. Rev. Geo. Campbell officiated.

Given away by her sister, Mrs. Brown, the bride looked lovely in a long white silk crepe gown with sweetheart neckline, bows at the shoulder, long tight sleeves, and short train. Her shoulder-length veil was held in place by a band of baby pink roses, and she carried a bouquet of deep pink roses with matching pink satin streamers.

Her only attendant was Miss Grace Peters, Kewick, who wore an ankle-length dress with bodice of chiffon velvet and a flared skirt of rose taffeta, with silver brunched net overskirt and matching headdress. She carried a nosebag of baby white mums and pink roses.

Mr. William Peters was best man.

After a reception, the couple left for Owen Sound, the bride travelling in a pale blue suit with black accessories, and a corsage of red roses.

DR. PARKS ON MENTAL HEALTH

At the W.I. area convention held at Toronto in the Royal York Hotel some weeks ago, Dr. Parks spoke to us on mental health, and he spoke with conviction, for Dr. Parks is an authority on this particular danger in our midst.

He said that very few people were fortunate enough to reach their most cherished goal, but in real fairy-tale style he had, for he had long had the desire to help fight loss of mental health, and he now was in a position to do so, for Dr. Parks, as you know, is Director of Organization, the Canadian Mental Health Association.

The association is engaged in a fight constructive, not destructive, against man's number one enemy in the health field — mental illness.

He said that too often, man's greatest enemy is himself. Take alcoholism, which is increasing alarmingly; this, he said, is often the result of man's trying to escape from what seems to be a world in chaos. He is usually a man emotionally unstable and he tries to drown his fears in drink.

Mr. Young and Mr. Berg, promoters of the plan, gave us many reasons why Canadian talent should be recognized and encouraged by Canadians. Too often we do not recognize even the fact that we HAVE real Canadian artists—people who are making Canadian talent known. Now, we people in Newmarket and surrounding communities are being given an opportunity to encourage it. Let us hope we live up to it.

Mrs. Rourke, our charming president, has infected us with her own enthusiasm and we hope it spreads to every music lover in the vicinity.

Marguerite Gignac

We had a treat also at the banquet, when Mrs. Rourke introduced one of the artists who is on the list of artists available for our concerts — Marguerite Gignac, soprano. Young, charming and with an arresting personality, she stole our hearts away as she went from ballad to opera, to folk song. Her voice has a dynamic dramatic quality, and left us wishing she would just go on singing and singing. Her shining black head and Mrs. Rourke's shining gold one, made a delightful picture at the head table.

Mental health, he went on, is everybody's business. The making of many a criminal can be traced back to a loveless home. Finding neither love nor sympathy where it should be found, the child turns to crime to make himself important, even if that importance has terrible consequences.

The Home

So, mental health should start first of all in the home. A baby, surrounded by love and care, feeling itself wanted, will have made a good start on the road to mental health.

We must, said Dr. Parks, get away from the medieval conception of mental illness. We should consider it on the same plane as physical illness, speak about it as freely and study how WE can be soldiers in this battle.

To learn to live with one another, never to isolate ourselves from our fellow men, to learn tolerance, to keep faith, hope and charity bright, will all help us to mental health.

All in all, we can, I am sure, look forward to three very fine musical events, in January, February and March of 1952.

Next week: Caribou and other things.

King City To Vote For Village Trustees

Ratepayers of King City will cast their votes on Monday, Dec. 3, for the election of three village trustees from five candidates. William Carson, retired, and Crawford Wells, merchant, are seeking re-election. The new candidates are Donald M. Findlay, lawyer, William E. Barker, and James Armstrong, sales manager. Others nominated, who withdrew their names, are Stanley Hunter, Ross Stuart and Ross Walker, a trustee for the past three years. Voting will take place in King Masonic hall, 12 noon to 8 p.m.

Civic Interest Aroused

For several years, the trustees have been elected to office by acclamation.

Secretary W. F. Hood was chairman of nominations and Duncan M. Ross, a one-time village trustee, was chairman of the general meeting which followed, when candidates spoke and ratepayers discussed their problems.

The discussion revealed one sure thing, that King is a good community in which to live; that its expanding population of home owners is suffering "growing pains", a healthy sign of progress. What taxpayers asked for is a trustee board strong enough to represent their interests before the township council. Some were dissatisfied with the gap between the village government and that of the township. They want closer contact.

Some complained strongly of the laxity of the present trustee board. They want action on town street lighting, sidewalks, observance of traffic speed laws. Some want representation on the township council. Mrs. Stanley Hunter would favor King City becoming an incorporated village to insure stronger government.

James Armstrong said that while he had "no axe to grind", he felt the village should have a strong voice on the township council, to remind that body "we are a very necessary part of King township." He stood for better police and fire protection, enforcement of speed laws, every attempt made to see that levies on private property are proportionate with the general assessment of the township.

He strongly protested the existence of trailers within the confines of the village. "Villagers who work hard and improve their properties at great expense should not have to put up with the ungodly, unsanitary and unsightly trailer houses that reduce property value," said Mr. Armstrong. "If circumstances are such as relief is necessary, let the township relief officer take up the matter of relief and accommodation. These trailers should not be foisted on taxpayers." Criticizing the laxity of present trustees, Mr. Armstrong wants consideration of proper street lighting, better sidewalks, speed signs on village approaches, proper garbage collection, and better sidewalks. If elected he would give these matters consideration.

Crawford Wells, who has been "in and out of the trusteeship for 25 years," said he thought the governing body of the village had done its best. He endeavored to answer many questions that came from the floor throughout the evening.

Donald Findlay said he would make this "a better village to live in" were he elected to office. He appreciated the fact that the community could not be revolutionized over night. He said he was thankful for the water system in King. He said he stood for progress, that there are certain things that can be done without raising the taxes. He said the character of the community is changing from semi-rural to semi-urban. He feels we must protect ourselves against disadvantages of being the closest part of the township to the city. A balance will have to be struck between urban and rural ways.

Mr. Findlay explained that government is partly village, township and county. His object, he said, would be to have more contact with the village taxpayer and more contact with the township council to bridge this gap. The village budget, he said, is not large enough for a lot of improvements without raising taxes. There are village powers that can be used for improvements without increasing the tax rate to make it a better and safer place in which to live. He spoke of fire protection regulations and curfew. He favored a voluntary community "paint up and clean up" campaign organized on a village scale.

Mr. Findlay stood for assessment levy on private property not excessive to the township as a whole.

Refreshments, which had been provided by King Women's Institute, were served in Miss Thomas' classroom. Those pouring tea were Mrs. Arthur Peck, Mrs. James Keens, Mrs. J. H. Barrie and Mrs. Raymond Burt.

On Tuesday, Nov. 24, Miss Annie McBride gave a chicken dinner at her home for Mr. and Mrs. Jack Darnard, of King, and their daughter Darlene, in honor of the couple's 4th wedding anniversary. Originally from Campbellford, Mr. Darnard is employed in highway construction work.

Visitors of Mr. and Mrs. James Armstrong on Sunday were their daughter, Mrs. Allan Small, and young daughter, Colleen Virginia; Mrs. Agnes Armstrong and son, Sam Armstrong, all of Toronto. Mrs. Armstrong, who is 82, is the mother of Messrs. Jim and Sam Armstrong and the great grandmother of baby Colleen.

Mr. Fred Dent underwent a surgical operation on his nose at the Wellesley hospital, Toronto, performed by Dr. Grant Strachan, last Saturday. He was hospitalized for several days.

Excavations Endanger Children's Lives

"My young son was in wet clay to his armpits in a building excavation and there are more than one such hole to endanger children's lives," Mrs. Arthur Fleet said. She was told by Trustee Wells that the township solicitor had written to each of the four owners of these building lots and he himself had telephoned the owners without results. He said she should contact the building inspector of the township. In the meantime, and for a very long time, Mrs. Fleet and her neighbor live in daily dread of something happening to their children because of "these holes."

Seek Action Against Speeding

A discussion about speeding of gravel trucks in the community, headed by George Armitage, led to unanimous approval by King ratepayers to instruct the village secretary to write a communication to the attorney general that action be taken in regard to speeding and careless driving, and that speed traps be placed at points throughout the village.

Will Expand Membership

An invitation is extended to all those interested to join the local association of the King Brownie Pack. The yearly fee is $1 which is used for the benefit of the Pack. The next meeting will be held at the Anglican rectory on Jan. 10, at 8 o'clock.

Celebrate Anniversary

Trooper R. V. Winter and his wife, the former Doreen Noble of King, celebrated their first wedding anniversary at their Maple home on Sunday afternoon. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Noble, their parents, and Tom Noble, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Archie Campbell and daughter Kay, all of King, and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hinds and daughter of Maple. Mrs. Hinds is Doreen's sister. Trooper Winter is on leave from Currie Barracks, Calgary, where he will be stationed for two and a half years. In January, his wife is planning to live in Calgary while her husband is with the army there.

Mr. Hand Craft Group Formed

A teen agers' craft group was organized at the home of Lady Flavelle on Saturday, Nov. 24, when nine girls, aged 14 to 20, discussed their interest in hand crafts and chose what work they will do. The organization will be called "TeenCrafters" and is affiliated with Kingcrafts, the senior craft organization. The group will work in metals.

The president is Suzanne Grew; secy., Gladys Johnston; treas., Mary Jane Walker. The work convener is Anne Specht and the assistant is Norma Wells.

Ruth Wilson is the telephone convener and Lady Flavelle is the honorary president. The advisory committee is Mrs. Ivan Specht, Mrs. J. L. Grew and Mrs. C. F. Johnston. Mrs. Specht will be the senior work convener and meetings will be held twice monthly in the recreation room of her home.

Through the efforts of Lady Flavelle, the girls will be given their first lesson by Mr. Douglas Boyd of Richmond Hill, who is one of Canada's outstanding silversmiths and craftsmen in fine metals. He has outlined a three month's course for the group.

The first work meeting will be held on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 8, 2 to 4:30 o'clock. From time to time, a general meeting will be held. While the girls have some knowledge of crafts, they are enthused with the prospect of engaging in the fascinating study of metal work, which gives them a wide variety of subjects.

"The formation of a junior organization will give them their own corner in the adult group," Lady Flavelle stated. Since TeenCrafters was formed, she has learned from the national president of Handcrafts, that it is probably the only independent group of young girls organized for craft work.

Miss Dennis expressed appreci-ation on behalf of the teachers.

Trustee James Keens offered a vote of thanks to Mr. Peck for the splendid job he had done in supervising the construction of the building, giving unstintingly of his time. Mr. Keens spoke of the recent satisfactory sale of debentures required to erect and remodel the school. Dr. J. H. Barrie, a trustee, spoke briefly.

Acclaim King Council

King township council members have all been acclaimed. They are: Elton Armstrong, reeve; T. A. McCutcheon, deputy-reeve; Raymond Jennings, William Hodgson and Russell Snider, councillors. William Kehoe and Stanley Kuniski, nominated as councillors, did not qualify.

At the nomination meeting at Schomberg, Nov. 23, the main topic of discussion was maintenance of roads and the construction of a section of hard surface roadway completed on an experimental basis on the west side of the township. More year-round road machinery equipment and a 24-hour snow removal system were advocated.

Declaring he had "never taken any money from taxpayers that he could not find some place else," Reeve Armstrong said the financial position of the township is sound. Council is not required to borrow any money to carry on.

While more money has been spent on roads and more man-hours given to bulldozing roads and ditches than in any previous year, more money will have to be expended in the coming year in this department, the reeve stated. There were 20,000 yards of gravel laid on the 200 mile stretch of the township roads last year and it would seem likely that 30,000 yards would be laid next year. The problem is to levy for this quantity and to get the 50 percent grant from the department of highways, the reeve pointed out.

Council members were all agreed that two bulldozers and maintainers should be owned outright by the township. It now owns one and rents the other.

Deputy-reeve T. A. McCutcheon explained that the township is the first municipality to experiment with a hard-top surfaced roadway. Extending west of Schomberg to Lloydtown, a mile of road costing less than $4,000, of which the government pays 50 percent, is being tried out. "It is just completed and it will hold the material put on it. I hope the plan pans out," said Mr. McCutcheon. "I would like to see a maintainer working 16 hours a day on the Turton sideroad, a 24-hour snow-plowing system in winter should be available. He wants hills winter-sanded to safeguard motorists and truckers.

Stanley Kuniski, nominated as councillor, is concerned with roads. He said the Linton side-road where his farm is located has been neglected in the spring of the year. He wouldn't want to face another spring under the same conditions.
